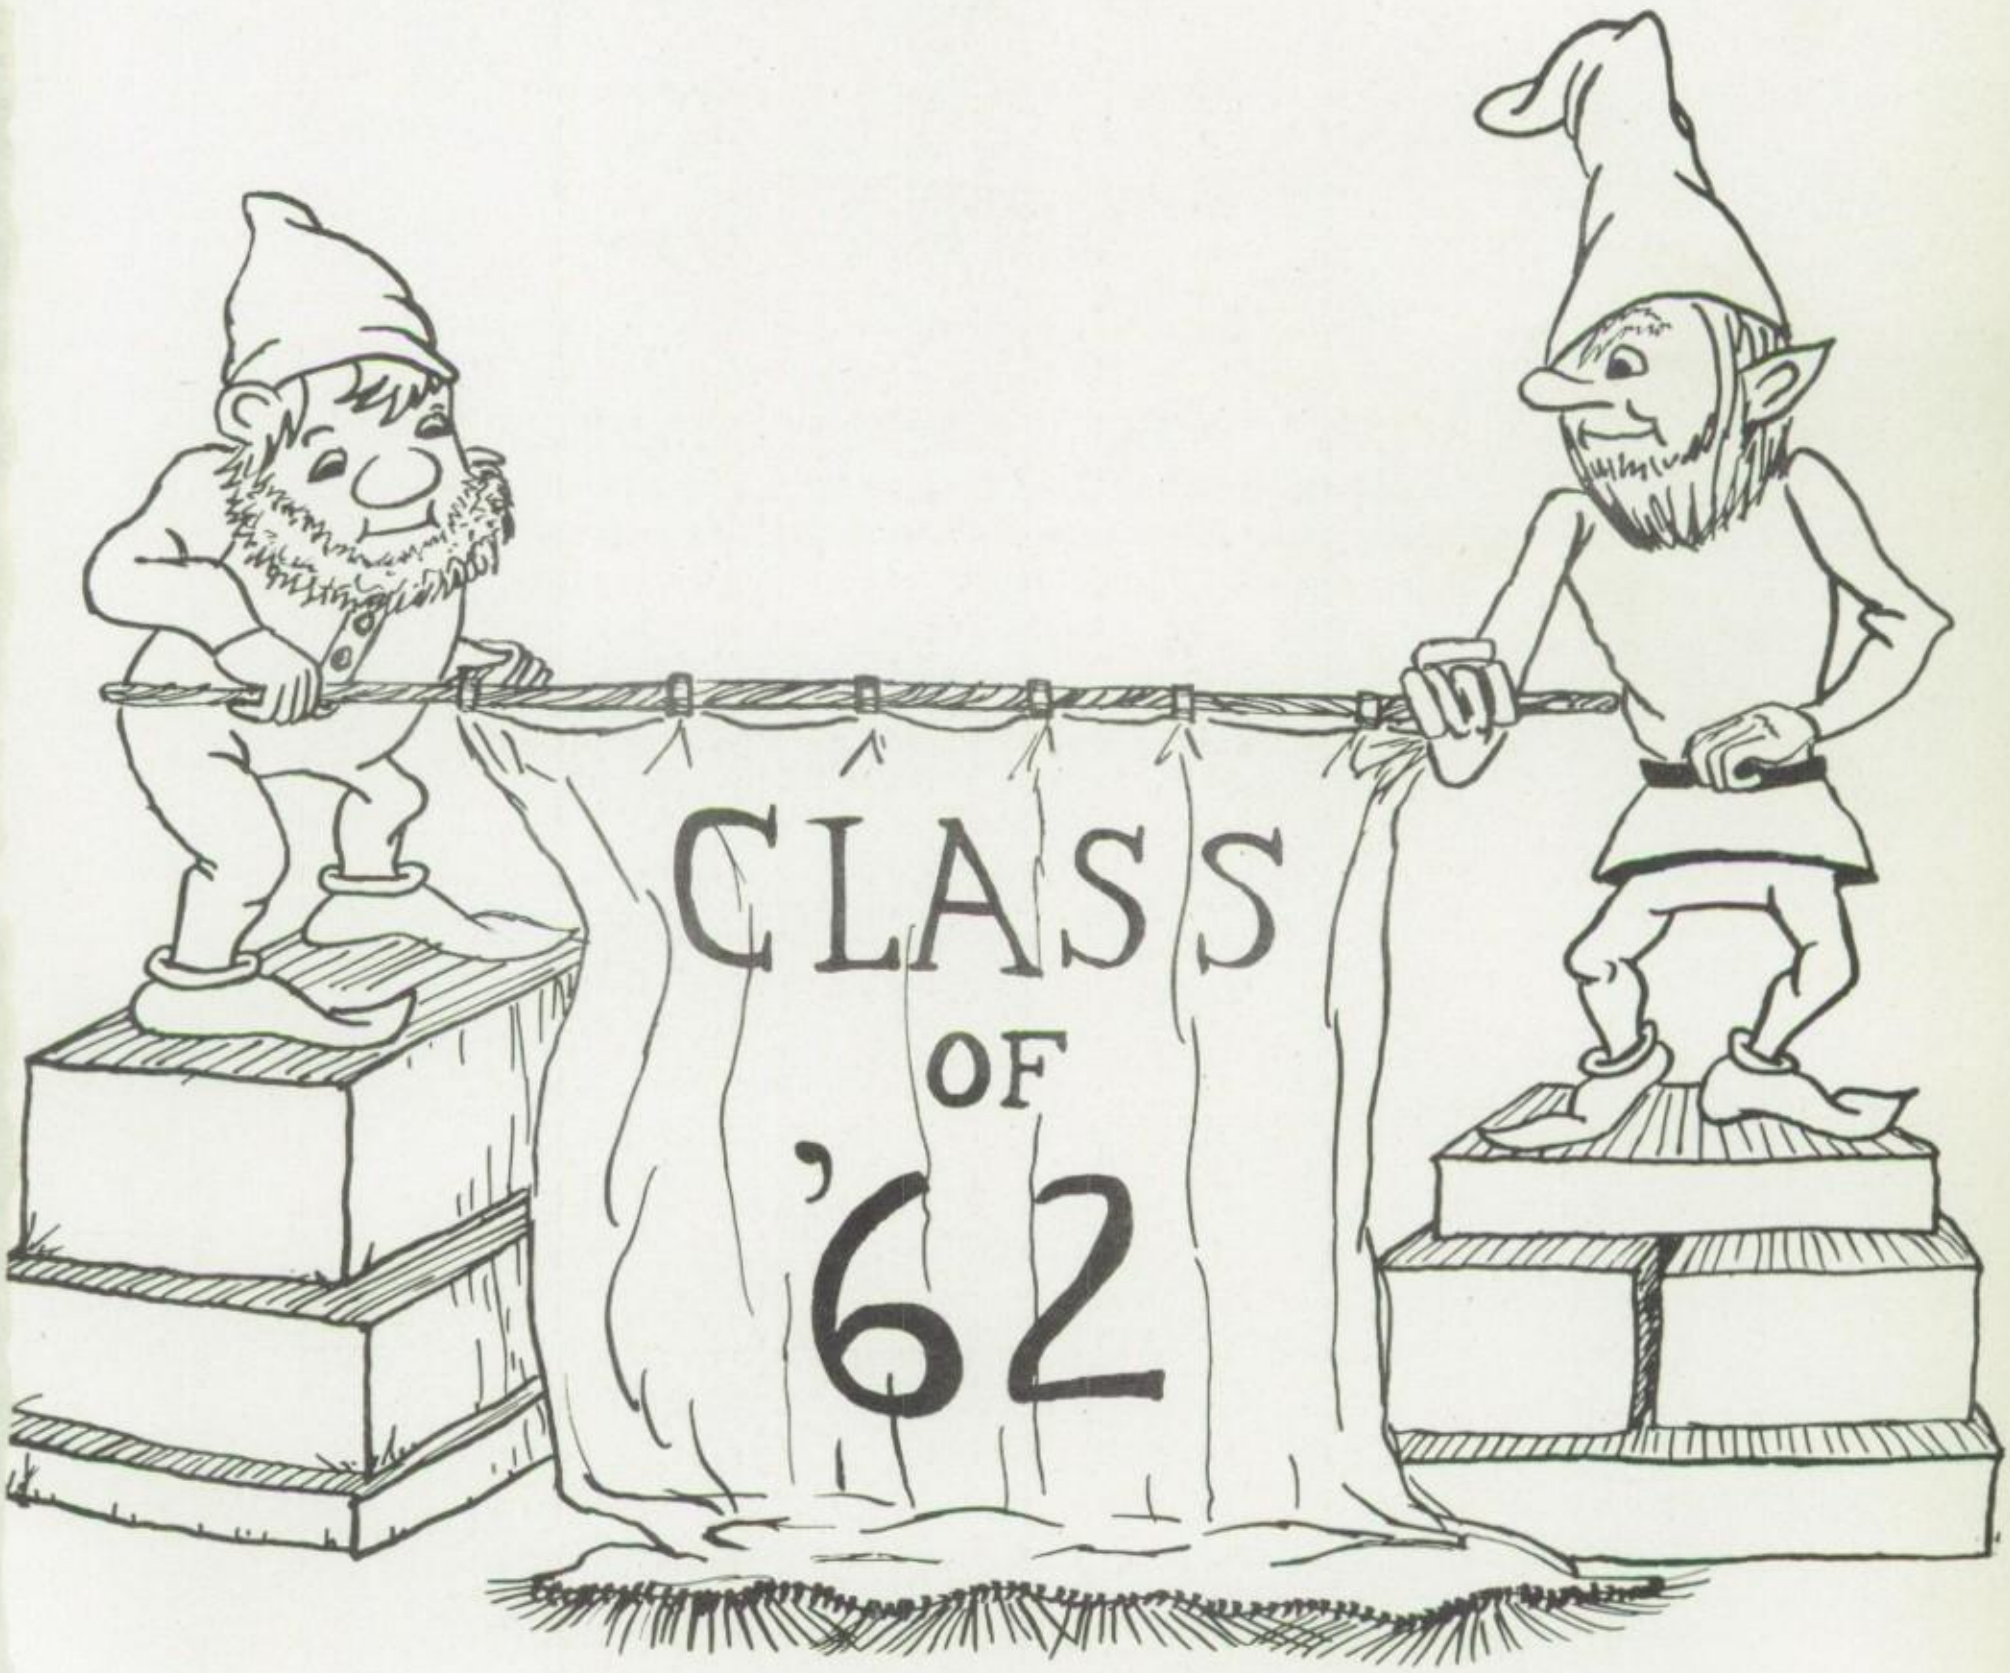
PRESENTING



DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1962, respectfully dedicate our annual to

MISS MARY E. GRIES
and to MR. T. T. ALLEN.

Having capably guided the annual staff for the last fifteen years, Mr. Allen always showed an inexhaustible amount of interest in each year's annual.

This year Miss Gries became the staff's new adviser. Entering a completely new field she adjusted herself quickly and proved to be a highly capable counselor. Any success granted this book will be due mainly to her never-ending efforts.

To Miss Gries and Mr. Allen we extend our sincerest thanks.

In Tribute to . . .

On February 28, 1962, the school and the community were shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Mr. Chester Stineman, beloved and popular director of the Vocal Music Department. Mr. Stineman will long be remembered for his many years of service given to Pottsville High, the numerous fine performances by his choirs, and his many deeds of public service.

SENIORS

MARTHA ACHENBACH

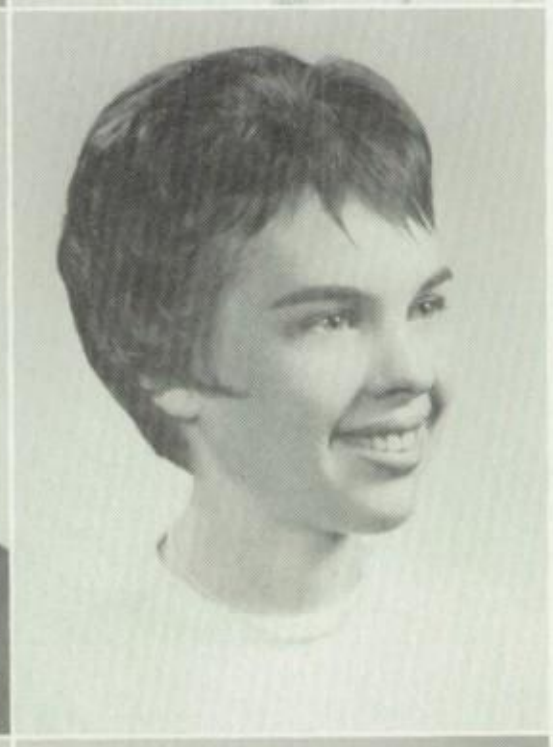
This sweet, reserved lass could be none other than Martha. Although she wasn't heard speaking very often, she did a terrific job singing in the A Cappella Choir. Martha's hobby was collecting postcards, but she claimed she also enjoyed sports and music, (not to mention Mr. Sterner's P. O. D. class). To Asbury College we send you, Martha, with all the luck and success in the world!

MARY BASAROB

The epitome of pep and friendliness, Mary added much to the life of our class. Although math and P. O. D. classes ranked as "tops" academically, cheering our teams to victory, dancing, swimming, and bowling were her favored extra activities. She also gave her talents to G. A. A. and Home Ec Club. Even though her future plans are now a little misty, we are sure she will succeed in whatever she endeavors.

GARY ADAMS

Confident of himself and his abilities, this good-looking guy held his own on practically any conceivable occasion, especially when mischief was afoot. Hunting, fishing, swimming, tennis playing, bowling — all claimed his attention. His love of adventure has prompted Gary to choose the U. S. Navy as his first post-graduation move.

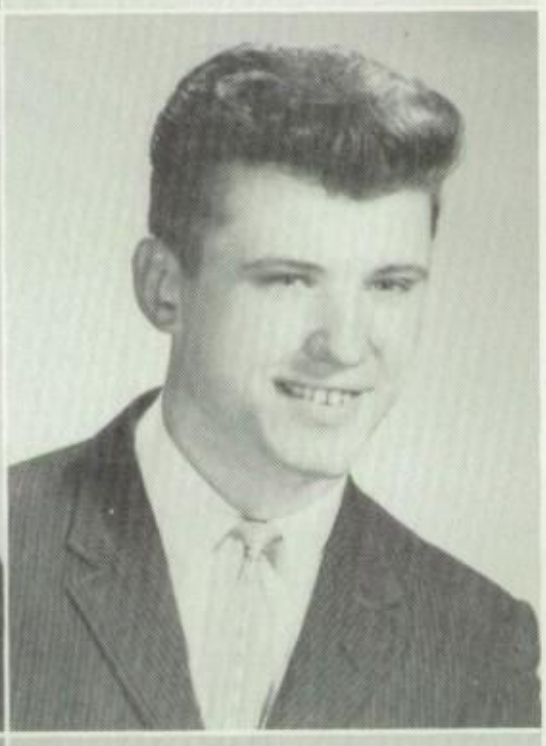


SANDRA BEDFORD

Sandy's future isn't quite certain as yet (whose is?), for she can't decide whether to study nursing or go to business school. Her singing and piano playing are only two of her many accomplishments, for she is also a reading, swimming, and bowling enthusiast. Sandy's frank and sympathetic friendship, plus a keen sense of humor, have created good will for her among all her classmates.

JOHN AUSTERBERRY

After fighting quite a battle with the English department, John found that if he tried, he could succeed. However, his love of driving and football won out over his desire to study. John's friendly grin and manner certainly won him many friends while at P. H. S. His amiability and his many other attributes should help him to have a "booming" career in the Navy.



CHARLES BEGANSKY

Big, strong, and good-looking are just a few adjectives that are synonymous with Charlie. His favorite avocation was cracking jokes or good - naturedly fooling around. Weight - lifting and jui-jitsu were among his various hobbies. (Was that to impress the females, Charlie?) Although art wasn't one of his interests, Charlie was very talented in this field. He also liked ice-skating, swimming, diving, gymnastics, boxing, and wrestling. The very best of luck to him in his future plans to study physical education.

JOAN BARNES

This charming girl appeared to have very little to say, but when one became acquainted with her, he could frankly say that this was not so. Joan enjoyed swimming, skating, and was not a little interested in dancing. These were only some of her off-the-record activities. We haven't been able to get a line on Joan's future endeavors. Undecided, young lady?

BARBARA BENSINGER

A pleasant personality and friendly smile accompanied this busy girl. She devoted her special aptitudes to the F. T. A., the Biology Club, the G. A. A., Allied Youth, and A Cappella during her stay at P. H. S. Barbara had an unusual talent for the sciences; chemistry was her favorite subject. Many fruitful hours she spent in the lab dreaming up unusual experiments and always helping the other fellow. Barbara plans to enter college and become a history teacher. (What happened to that scientific bent??) To a future educator, the best of luck and happiness.

RICHARD BETTIS

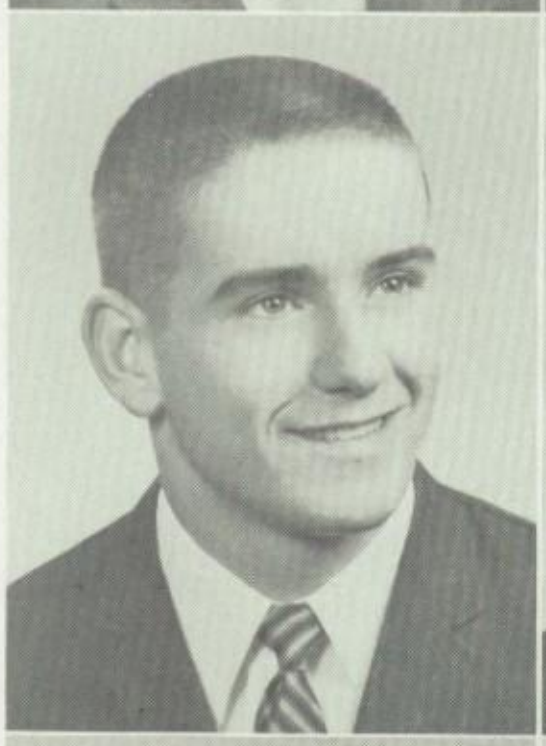
Congeniality — that's certainly Rich's motto. His willingness to lend a helping hand has made him a favorite in the Class of '62. A Cappella, which claimed the support of Rich's tenor voice, ranked as his chief interest, but his creative ability was displayed equally well in the art class. We predict that Dick will make his mark some day as an interior decorator, an ambition he plans to pursue in art school next year.

EARL BLUM

Earl considered a day well spent if, in it, he had an opportunity to hunt and fish. He was a member of Miss Curran's Distributive Education class and appeared to do quite nicely. He was also an enthusiastic sports fan, although he was not a participant. Earl plans to join the Air Force after graduation. We're sure that he will be a worthy addition to our armed forces.

THOMAS BETTIS

Happy days are here again when Tom is around, for everyone liked his wit and humor. Of course, there was a serious side to his nature, but we were more familiar with him when he was having a good time. A stalwart on the Crimson and White varsity football line, Tom took work as well as play without a complaint. His plans for the future include a course in physical education. Our bet is on Bettis!



MARIDEL BOHLER

"Mar" is a pretty package of friendliness, topped with an energetic personality. A. I. D. (secretary), Student Council, Hi-S-Potts Annual staff, and A Cappella gave "Mar" a hundred and one things to do. As one of P. H. S.'s hard-working cheerleaders, she fairly exuded spirit and vitality. With a tip of a "white cap" we send Maridel to the Reading General Hospital, where she will prove to be as much credit to her chosen profession as she was to us. Continue to "bowl" 'em over, "Mar."

DONNA BICHT

Good things come in small packages: sparkling blue eyes, blonde hair, and a bubbling personality make up this perky package. Donna, an enrolle in the academic course, will be long remembered for her sincerity and friendliness. Among Donna's many activities, Senior Y-Teens and Library Club were her favorites. All of our best wishes go with her when she leaves for Philadelphia after graduation to become a secretary.

WILLIAM BRESLIN

When we think of a slide trombone, we just naturally think of Bill, who proved his capabilities as a worthy member of the P. H. S. Band and the Pep Band. Well versed in photography and target shooting, Bill was also an avid fan of the P. H. S. football and basketball teams. Uncertain as to what college he will attend, he is certain that engineering will be the curriculum he will follow. Our very best to a fine fellow.

FRANCIS BIERMAN

Francis, one of our fine, capable enrollees in the Distributive Education course, is sorry that his high school days are over. During his stay at P. H. S., Francis was most interested and talented in the field of electricity. He also enjoyed cars and sports of all types. After commencement, it will be "Anchors Aweigh" for this member of the great Class of '62.

HAROLD BRIGADE

Have you any problems? Just ask Harold and he's got an answer. A definite asset to our class, his extra-curricular activities included A Cappella Choir, F. T. A., Latin Club (president), National Honor Society, and basketball. Astronomy and coin collecting commanded his attention during leisure time. Harold also earned a letter of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. To a future architect, we wish all the luck while studying at Syracuse.

DIANA BROKHOFF

A pretty blonde with a sweet smile and a weakness for buying clothes are a few phrases which describe our Diana. Allied Youth, Biology, and Library Clubs were included among her activities. Collecting records and picture post-cards filled most of Diana's spare time. Her avid interest in people will surely aid her in fulfilling her future plans as a psychologist.

MARGARET BURNS

A pretty brunette, Peggie's charm and cheerfulness have been great assets to the Class of '62. Sketch Club, F. T. A., and Annual Staff were among the organizations which claimed her active participation, but art class ranked as Peggie's chief delight. Besides these activities, Peggie found time to enjoy such hobbies as reading, crocheting, and—cooking! This "art teacher - in - the - making" is sure to paint a future that is a masterpiece of success!

EDITH BRUEN

"A bundle of fun"—that's our Edie. Her lively manner and engaging smile brightened the halls of P. H. S., and her lovely soprano voice lent a tuneful note to both A Cappella and the Vocalaires. Edie also displayed her acting talents very capably as "Sandy" in our Senior Play. Although her future plans are still a big secret, we know Edie will find life "as easy as a song."

DARLENE BUTTS

G. A. A. and Hi - S - Potts Newspaper Staff kept this miss of the senior class busy. Darlene loved to dance and collect records. She could usually be found at all of the high school dances. Swimming and driving were her favorite pastimes. Typing class rated high on her list of likes in school, and this gives the answer to her future as a typist.

DAVID BUCHANAN

Quiet? Shy? Not Dave! That calm exterior concealed a spirited sense of humor and an amiable personality that have won him many friends. A sports enthusiast, Dave devoted much of his time to Little League baseball and coaching a Midget football team, but a ride in his gray Impala ranked as "the most." Upon graduation, Dave plans to enter Penn State University to study drafting and designing. May this likeable young man design a successful future for himself!

JOSEPH CENTIFANTI

Is that a lively debate we hear? Joe must be near by! Possessing both great knowledge and a flair for words, Joe aroused many spirited classroom discussions. A fine tuba player, Joe represented P. H. S. in both District and State Bands. His keen wit and original jokes added zest to any gathering. Joe's more serious nature revealed an appreciation of good books and an ability to play an expert game of chess. We know good fortune will always brighten the path of this future teacher.

JOHN BURCH

Here's a likeable, nice-looking fellow with a quiet sense of humor and a keen personality. His favorite haunt was the Y. M. C. A., of which he was an ardent member, or Mickey's. John seemed to like German and gym classes best of all, but lunch ranked high on his list of preferences. He had an unusual dislike for long assemblies and didn't hesitate to say so. John plans to enter Penn State next fall. Our best wishes go with him in whatever he pursues.

LOUISE CHESCAVAGE

Very sweet and vivacious are two superlatives that best depict Louise. Because of her interest in other people, Louise did a fine job as a member of G. A. A., Allied Youth, and Senior Y-Teens. She enjoyed dancing, swimming, and skating. In line with her fondness for travel, Louise plans to join a branch of the women's services after graduation.

SUSAN CLARK

"Patience is a virtue." This quality, along with keen understanding, is clearly evident to Susie's many friends. During her years at P. H. S., Susie's interests and activities were many, but serving as president of the band was her favorite. Her superior ability in music has won her much deserved recognition. This fine combination is a sure key to success in Susie's music-teaching career.

JOHN COLEMAN

Combine a hearty laugh, athletic ability, an engaging personality — and don't forget a blush — the result? John!!! He is the possessor of a fine sense of fair play and keen determination, which he needed on the gridiron as one of the varsity eleven. Music, especially listening to jazz, and playing the drums, was this guy's favorite form of entertainment. His ambition is to study political science and then become a news commentator. To a future Chet Hutley, we broadcast best wishes!

GEORGE CLAUSER

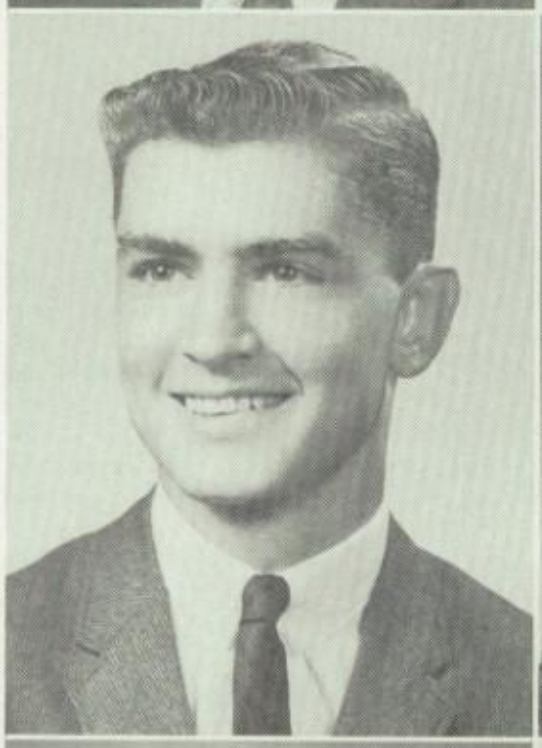
Popular, handsome, and pleasant describe our George perfectly. He has won the friendship of all his classmates through his good-natured personality. George could be found swinging a baseball bat or playing the clarinet in our school band. He is certainly a guy worth knowing, and a friend worth having! George's future plans are to enter college and major in accounting. George is one who deserves only the best — and may he get it!

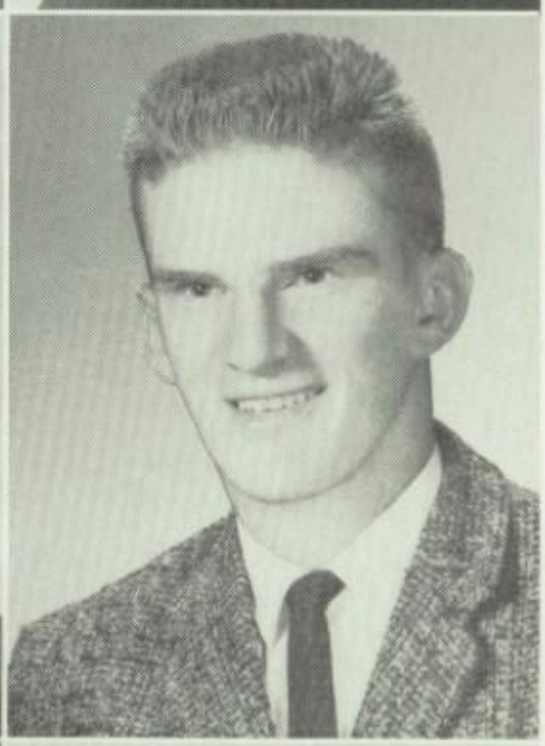
SHARYN COOKSON

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." Such describes Sharyn. One of the capable volunteer nurses, she always gave a cheerful hello to all she met. Besides nursing, she liked dancing, playing the piano, and sports. Her favorite subject was typing. To Sharyn, who plans to become a nurse and serve in the Navy, go our best wishes for success and happiness.

THOMAS CLAUSER

This boy from Stoyer Hills added much to the Class of '62. Although Tom was interested in astronomy, he had a down-to-earth liking for all types of sports. This athletic attitude was accentuated by his playing on the varsity baseball team. His enjoyment of Mr. Schnerring's chem classes points to a promising career in his chosen field of science.





NORMAN COYLE

Silent and determined, little comment was heard from Norm — UNTIL we learned to know him! Then he erupted, revealing his deviltry and great sense of humor. "Herm's" contributions to sports while in P. H. S. were made to baseball and football, in which he always excelled. Varsity Club and T. K. D. were privileged to have him as a member. To one of the best-liked boys of the Class of '62, we, in turn, wish the best.

KAREN CLOCKER

See that pleasant stewardess coming down the aisle of the "707"? Why, it's Karen Clocker. Karen, a very likeable member of our class, was an avid fan of record hops and anything having to do with a good time. She especially enjoyed typing class where she capably gave of her talents. Upon graduation, an airline training school will be fortunate to have Karen as an enrollee.

WILMA CROSLAND

P-R-I-V-A-T-E S-E-C-R-E-T-A-R-Y, that's what our Wilma wants to be, and we are certain she will do her utmost to achieve this ambition. Cheerful and friendly, Wilma served Mr. Luchnick well in the commercial lab. Her many activities included G. A. A. and Senior Y-Teens, but her favorite pastime was teasing our own Mr. Haberle! We forecast a favorable future for a really friendly person.

JOSEPH CULLEY

Miss Curran's D. E. class is certainly going to miss this affable lad with his friendly and quiet manner. Although D. E. took up most of Joe's time, he pursued his interests in swimming, dancing, and sports. Mr. Sterner's cross country team was his favorite. To this future business executive go all the luck and success the Class of '62 has to offer.

MARY DAVIS

Cute as a button, friendly, and very lively are only a few words to describe Mary. As one of our peppy cheerleaders, this well-liked little gal seemed to have a special talent for spreading enthusiasm wherever she went. Reading, dancing, P. of D. class, and especially football games (why?), were high on her list of likes. Mary plans to enter a business school upon graduation, and we certainly wish her nothing but the best!

KAREN CURLEY

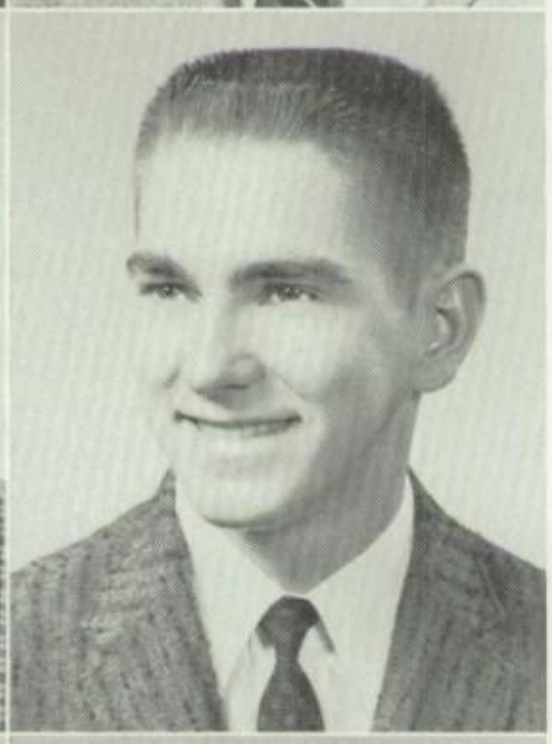
Attractive, neat, and well mannered most fittingly described Karen. She is sincerely appreciated by all who know and admire her. Library Club, Biology Club, and Rainbow Girls—all received her attention. Karen is also fond of math, swimming, and dancing. At this time, her principal ambition in life is a big question mark. We trust fortune will smile on her and her dance through life will be a smooth one.

EDWARD DEMKO

Who's that flying into the wild blue yonder? None other than Ed, a future member of the Air Force. Always ready to support the baseball and the football teams, Ed loyally attended all the games. Some of his spare time was spent actively participating in his various outdoor interests — hunting and fishing. Good luck to you, Ed, in your future career.

DAVID DALLAGO

Whether running that ball or batting down an opponent's pass, Dave is a real example of an all-around sportsman. Although most of his time was occupied with sports, this likeable fellow always found time to have fun and display a keen wit. Many a group was filled with laughter by Dave's joyful sense of humor. Dave, we think you're tops!

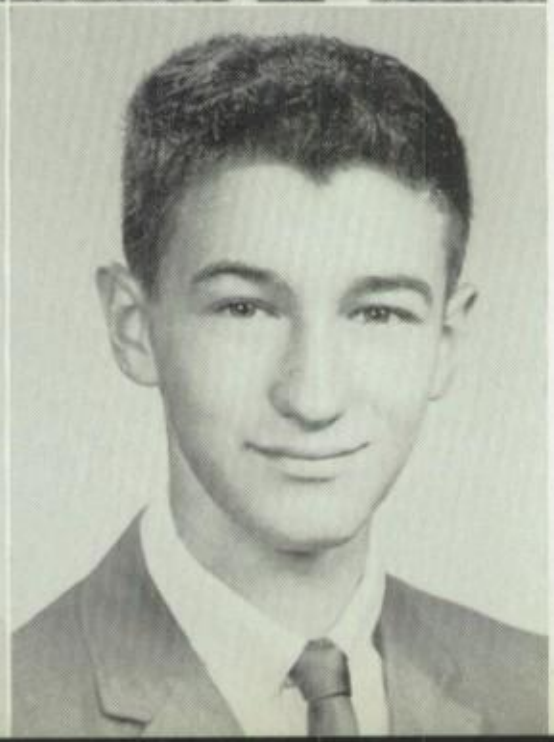


JAMES DEVITT

Although he is one of the quieter members of our class, Jim could always be seen at the "Republican" newspaper building, where he worked industriously every day. He was a regular P. H. S. rooter at all our athletic games, whether football, basketball, track, or baseball. In school, his favorite subjects were history and typing. After graduation, he plans to enter the Armed Services. We wish him the best in his future Naval career.

RUSSEL DAVIES

Does anyone hear a motor scooter? It must be Russ, riding around on his favorite form of transportation. A competent trombone player, he managed to make seventh period band a party for all concerned. Only Russ could concoct hair-raising experiments and call it a hobby. As a future physics teacher, we know he will find the perfect formula for success!



JOSEPH DI CELLO

This happy, fun-loving chap was high man on the D. E. totem pole. His daily sales pitch was made afternoons in Schuylkill County's largest department store, where he was held in high regard. Hunting and fishing were alluring diversions: homework was his principal aversion. Although his plans are subject to change, we are confident that Joe will earn a mark in his chosen field.

JOAN DINGER

Carefree and gay were the best words to describe this young lass. Joan, who always believed in having fun, did find time, however, to be an ardent member of Home Ec Club and G. A. A. Roller-skating and dancing were rated as "tops" by her, along with attending football and basketball games. After graduation, it will be "Number, please?", as Joan becomes a Bell Telephone operator.

GLORIA EPTING

This cute, petite lass was one of the best in our class. She represented a very quiet and refined student who knows what it takes, and that's what counts! Scholastically she was among the top ten of the class. Her list of co-curricular activities was also very impressive — National Honor Society, French Club, Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff, and the Yearbook staff. Gloria contemplates a career as a medical technologist. We're sure she is on her way to a life of service to others.

DOROTHY DONTON

This cute little brunette came to us from Palo Alto. Dottie was one of our fun-loving girls who could usually be found dancing at Renninger's to the music of the Jordan Brothers. Friendly and capable, she was well suited for Distributive Education duties. Dottie hopes to continue in the field of retailing. To this happy-go-lucky gal we offer our sincere wishes for prosperity and happiness.

KAREN EVANS

Talent+Intelligence+Personality=Karen. Her talent was most ably displayed in the field of art, where she created many fine pieces for Mrs. Liddle. Intelligence was evident throughout her classes, especially P. O. D., German, and English. That she was personable is seen by her host of friends. With her flair for the unusual, Karen also was a Kiltie piper. College lies ahead for our Miss Evans, where she plans to major in the field of Germanic languages and where, we are certain, she will do a superior job.

JOHN ECKERT

This friendly lad made good use of his time in the shops. One could always expect a cheerful hello and a devilish look from John. He rated ice-skating as his favorite pastime and most enjoyable sport. Although John is not quite certain about his career, he is considering entering the Service. We are certain that upon whatever path John chooses to travel, he will most assuredly meet success.

PATRICIA FASOLD

Dependable, capable, and hard-working—all do a good job in describing Pat. This football enthusiast possessed the knack of accomplishing whatever she set out to do, a fact which Miss Jones appreciated, for this gal was one of her very efficient Library aides. Possessed of a very friendly nature and a willingness to do for others, Pat will make an excellent nurse, an ambition we are sure will be capably fulfilled in the near future.

EDWINA EPTING

This bright lass, with her happy disposition, really enjoyed life, especially working with people. "Eddie" was an ambitious and energetic member of the D. E. class, but in her leisure time she participated just as vigorously in Senior Y-Teens, Youth Fellowship (of which she was secretary), reading, writing to pen pals around the world, dancing, and attending football games. "Eddie" plans to enter the exciting field of retailing. Here's hoping she "sells" herself a lifetime package of happiness!

DONALD FLEISCHUT

Did anyone mention, "Let's have some fun!" Happy-go-lucky Don never ran out of ideas for pranks to be played on some unsuspecting victim. Don added lots of joy and laughter to our class. As Clarence in the Senior Play, he did a terrific job. He could always be seen zoming up to Mickeys' in a green or white Comet. Among his extra activities, track ranked first. With his flair for chem, we are sure Don will mix a compound of success and happiness for himself as a chemical engineer.

ELENA FORTE

A gal with a gay laugh and lots of bounce, our "Peanuts" was always ready for action. Elena enjoyed serving in the Library Club and being active in G. A. A. Her favorite pastime was taking a spin in her red and white station wagon. "Peanuts" plans to become a laboratory technician, and we're sure her success will be as bright as her personality!

ROBERT FREEZE

Bobby, who managed the varsity basketball team, could always be found encouraging our players on to victory. This friendly, good-natured guy was also an asset to Mr. Sterner's Track and Cross Country teams. When not participating in sports, Bob's other interests were woodshop, camping, and swimming. After graduation, he intends to join the United States Navy. We are confident Bob will excel in everything he does!

MICHAEL FORTUNATC

Mike, a friendly and energetic fellow, was an avid member of Miss Curran's Distributive Education course. For his outside activities, he enjoyed swimming, dancing, collecting hot-rod books, and going to Schuylkill Haven. Mike's ability to make friends wherever he goes will be a great asset to him in the future when he joins the Navy.

GEORGE GARRETT

Senior Class president, first annual Hall of Fame scholar-athlete (Schuylkill Chapter, National Football Foundation), AP, UP, and Big 33 choice for All-State guard, co-recipient of the Walter Griffith Amvets lineman-of-the-year award, co-captain of the '61 Crimson and White varsity football squad, key player on the basketball varsity — this congenial fellow came close to being indispensable to us! "Let George do it," — and it will be done.

ROSEMARY FOURTIN

Who's that friendly girl who proudly proclaims Palo Alto as her home? It's none other than Rosie. With her smile she made our days a little brighter. As a member of the Kiltie Corps, she marched faithfully with our band at games and parades. Home Ec Club and Senior Y-Teens took up most of her spare time. As a future nurse, Rosie is sure to hit the highest point on the thermometer of success. Best of luck!

SARAH GEARHART

We're truly sorry that we've been privileged to know Sarah for only one year. (She came to us in September, 1961.) Yes, Governor Mifflin's loss was our gain. With her pleasing personality, it was small wonder she acquired so many friends. Her soprano voice was quite an asset to A Cappella Choir. To a future teacher, we wish for Sarah the most satisfying rewards such a career has to offer.

THOMAS FREDERICKS

Tom, always pleasant and obliging, could be seen—and heard — cheering vigorously at pep rallies. How that head bobbed! He enjoyed dancing, skating, and hunting, and served as a capable member of the Color Guard in the band. Tom rated electric shop higher than all other studies. To a future Air Force Cadet, we wish a life filled with blue skies.

THERESA GENTILE

This perpetual motion machine helped to make our senior year one big blast. Theresa, a cheerleader, was known for her ready smile and special laugh. As president of F. T. A., she kept the club a very active one. Although Theresa studied hard (to stay in National Honor Society, no doubt!), she had time to belong to Latin Club and A. I. D. As a member of the Annual Staff, Theresa helped to make this annual the best ever. To a classroom-bound tornado — best of luck!

GAIL GERHARD

With her determination, stick-to-it-iveness, fine scholastic ability, and a disposition so sunny that it matches her hair, Gail has all the qualities for a successful teaching career. Her outstanding vocal ability, which could be heard with the harmony of the A Cappella, received its due recognition when she was chosen to participate in several District Choruses. As an ardent student of Latin, she was an enthusiastic organizer and member of the Latin Club. To a fine classmate, we bid a fond Vale!

PEGGY GLENN

A student in the secretarial course, Peggy was always pleasant, peppy, and good-natured. She exhibited this energy as one of our varsity cheerleaders and as a member of A. I. D., the Spanish Club, and the Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff. Peggy's work in her English classes paid off in her junior year when she received a spelling certificate from the Goldey Beacom Secretarial School. As she enters the business field, we wish the best that life has to offer.

NANCY GERHARD

Nancy, a fun-loving gal with a cheerful smile, provided us with many enjoyable moments. Her duties as treasurer of Library Club and membership in A. Y. kept her busy as a bee, but school dances or sports events never lacked her lively presence. Nancy will tell one and all that shorthand is her favorite subject. In her tea leaves we "read" a bright future for a deserving young lady.

CHRISTINE GRIM

Did anyone see that cute little blonde go by carrying her French horn? Why, it's our own Chris with her quiet, but pleasing personality. She performed yeoman service as a typist in Mr. Stabnau's office. Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff, G. A. A., and, of course, Band, were fortunate to have Chris as their member. Chris's future plans are indefinite, but she will surely be a capable member of whatever business school she chooses.

JAN GLASSER

Right from the Electrical Shop comes this fishing enthusiast, who has acquired the nickname "Moose." Well versed in the art of basketball, he enjoyed playing the game with the guys from Port Carbon. A good mechanic, he loved to work on cars. Jan's present plans are to enter the Armed Services. May your future be as bright as the sun in the sky, "Moose." The Class of '62 is behind you!

WOODRIN GROSSMAN

Mere words are not sufficient to picture accurately the attributes of Woody. Leadership, dependability, intelligence, and a warm sense of humor — he has all of these. He divided his time between acting as president of A. Z. A. and controlling the "purse strings" of our annual as business manager. In spite of all these things to do. Woody still found time to study, and the fruits of this labor were rewarded by membership in National Honor Society. Good luck at either Penn State or Moravian, Woody!

GALEN GLASSMIRE

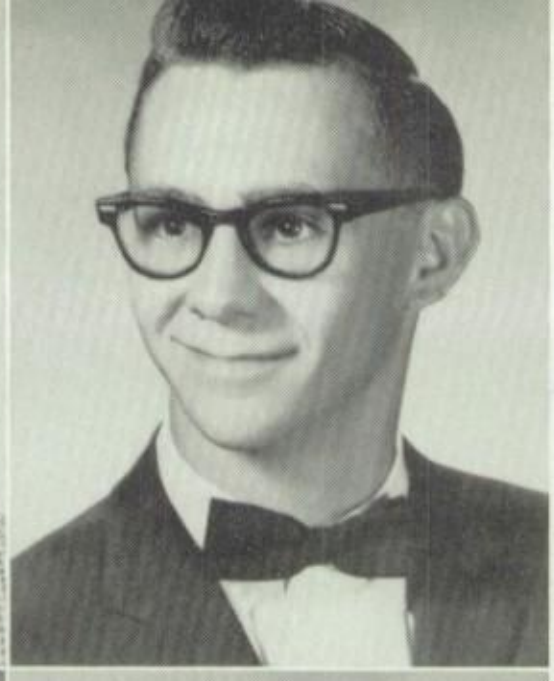
Galen's chief interest while in P. H. S. was music, as could be readily seen by his active participation in the school band. Although he was naturally quiet, Galen established himself in our hearts by his good nature and willingness to help his fellow students. This highly agreeable chap plans either to enlist in the Navy or to acquire a good job. Our good wishes go with him.

DAVID GUERS

A suave manner and a magnetic smile characterize this debonair lad. Soaring into the wild blue yonder in a Piper Cub, horseback riding, trapping, and swimming fulfill Dave's yen for exciting pastimes, although he claimed that lunch was his favorite period of the day in P. H. S. Dependable and ambitious, Dave lent his varied talents to the Order of DeMolay. The Class of '62 sees bright prospects ahead for this future businessman.

EDWARD HALL

Ed, while one of the quieter members of the '62'ers, nevertheless always enjoyed having a barrel of fun. His genial personality, once his reserve was penetrated, was his greatest asset. To him one of the greatest pleasures in life was riding horseback. Next on his list of hobbies came anything having to do with airplanes. Although our crystal ball tells us that his future plans are still a bit "misty," we predict a future career of enjoyment and satisfaction.



PAUL HARRIS

Did someone mention "chlorine and water gives you hydrochloric acid?" It can only mean that our "maestro" Paul was nearby. Although he was an avid member of National Honor Society and keeping his high scholastic average, Paul still found time to partake in band (where he capably served as a student conductor). He proved his musical ability by participating in many District Band, District Orchestra, and State Band festivals. Hats off to a fine guy who will major in chemistry upon graduation!

PATRICIA ANN HALUSKA

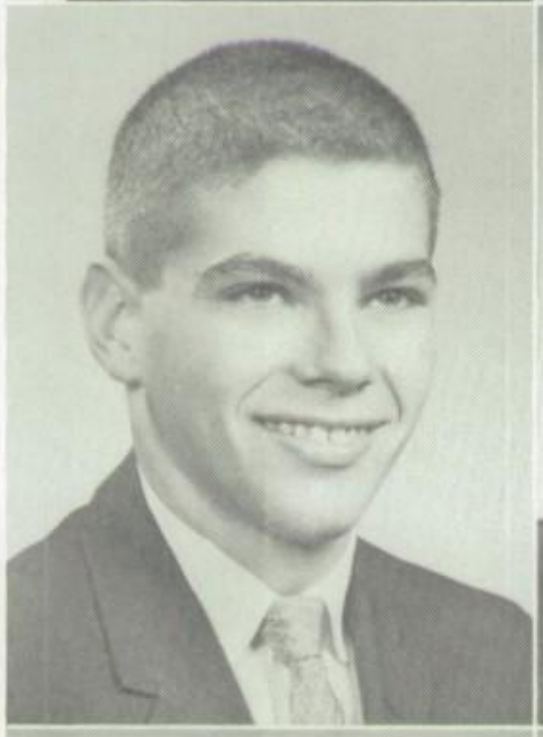
Pat, the possessor of a warm smile and sparkling eyes, was one of Mr. Sterner's favorite Program Sales Girls. This future secretary has a passion for collecting stuffed animals, but her leisure time is devoted to dancing, swimming, and skating. With all her enthusiasm and vitality, we know Pat will be a treasure to her lucky employer.

BEVERLY HEFFNER

Gym class will never be the same without Bev! No matter what happened, she always found something funny to say. In addition to telling jokes, Bev also enjoyed swimming, skating, and dancing. Although this cheerful miss is not too certain of her future plans, she would like to become a lawyer. The very best of luck to you, Bev!

CARL HAMMER

From the time Carl first became a '62'er, his inquisitive and sincere nature has attracted attention. Although he had a strong dislike of homework, he encountered little difficulty with the academic department. Serving as treasurer of A. Z. A. still left him time to keep up with current events, in which he was quite interested. We hope Carl's fondest desire to enter the Air Force Academy and some day be a nuclear physicist will become a reality.



LOUIS HEFFNER

Louie was sure he would never last four years in high school — but here he is! When Lou wasn't with the band, he was at home studying. Right, Lou? Hunting and fishing were his favorite pastimes. As a member of the D. E. course, Lou had good training for his future. The business world will certainly benefit from his entrance into the field of retailing. Hats off to you, Lou!

JOHN HARIG

Jack was an industrious enrollee in Miss Curran's Distributive Education class. He went about performing his many duties conscientiously, however. In his lighter moments, baseball and basketball claimed his attention. Jack had a flair for the outdoors, hunting and fishing leading the list of his many activities. We're sure he'll be prepared for the "game" of life as he enters some branch of Uncle Sam's Armed Forces.

GRACE HEIN

Quiet and sincere, Grace certainly had all the qualities that her name implies. For Grace, working in the Commercial Lab was a breeze, but she needed a great deal of perseverance for advanced math. A fine collection of statues and books revealed her favorite pastimes. Since she has a bit of wanderlust, Grace dreams of a future as a traveling saleswoman. The best of luck, Grace!

JOHN HOCHGERTEL

This happy-go-lucky fellow was a source of laughter for everyone who knew him. "Hokey" had an affinity for physics and chemistry which knew no bounds!! He spent many of his leisure hours absorbed in his favorite hobby, hunting. As a tackle on our football team, "Hokey" gave his best. To this veritable whirlwind, we wish the best of everything.

LUTON HOUTZ

Hail, King Arthur! — for such praiseworthy acting in our Senior Play. Luton, a tranquil, well-mannered member of our class, also contributed his talents to A Cappella, French Club, and F. T. A. While at P. H. S., he was a distinguished recipient of scouting's God and Country award. A gaze into our crystal ball shows Luton's future plans are still a bit misty, but we know his achievements will be "fit for a king." Right, "Art"?

JANET HOKE

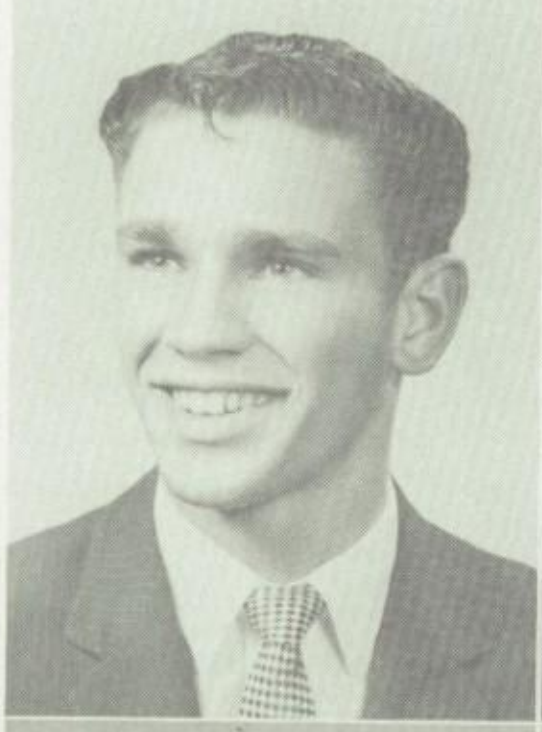
Cordiality, poise, and efficiency are Janet's watchwords. An agile gal, she can often be found bowling energetically, slamming a tennis ball across the net, or playing a round of tunes on the piano. In P. H. S., Janet devoted her capabilities to Biology Club, F. T. A., Annual Staff, and A Cappella. Preparing for a career as an elementary teacher, Janet leaves our halls to enter those of a state college. May happiness and prosperity be the "elements" of her life!

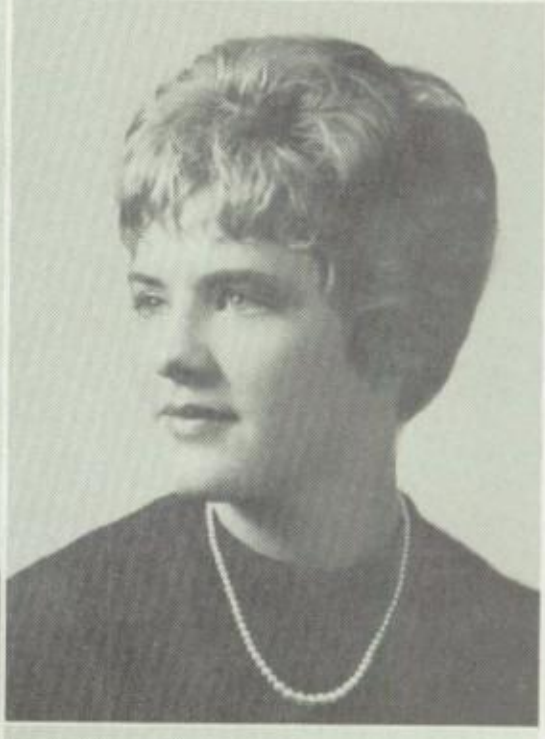
VIRGINIA HRENYO

A bundle of charm and energy, topped with wit—results in the one and only Ginny. She was a member of our wonderful and hard-working cheerleaders, Allied Youth, and Senior Y-Teens. Her hobbies were reading, drawing, and collecting records, along with dancing, which was one of her favorite pastimes. We're positive Ginny will make some lucky executive a wonderful secretary.

RICHARD HORNING

Dick, always full of smiles and mischief, was an enrollee in our Vocational course. He said that sports were "tops" in his books, but we know Dick enjoyed his classes equally well. He was awarded three trophies in basketball and one in baseball. Upon graduation in June, this friendly chap plans to join Uncle Sam's Navy. We are sure his fellow swabbies will like him just as much as we have.





CAROLINE HUMMEL

Popularity, attractiveness, and cheerfulness all blend together to help make Caroline one of the better-liked female members of our class. Full of fun, Caroline displayed both vim and vigor in everything she attempted. Although she was kept busy with her varied activities, she proved to be a very capable member of Annual Staff and A. I. D. Caroline especially enjoyed her cheerleading duties and with her enthusiasm she will surely succeed in the college of her choice.

SUSAN HORWHAT

This energetic girl with the friendly personality has enjoyed her four years at P. H. S. Her many school activities included Biology Club, Girls' Athletic Association, Junior Volunteer Nursing, and membership in Senior Y-Teens. Chemistry and Latin classes rated as top subjects on Susie's list, while reading occupied her spare time. To enter the Pottsville Hospital School of Nursing is Susan's immediate plan for the future.

ALICE HUNTER

Pretty, popular, sparkling — that's Alice. Her contagious smile and pleasing personality have won the admiration of countless associates. Her interests included National Honor Society, Student Council, A. Y., Sketch Club, and A Cappella (treasuler). Alice was also a member of several District and State Choruses. This Hunter's happy hunting ground will be Penn State, where her target is Fashion Merchandising—and her aim is true.

PATRICIA JACOBY

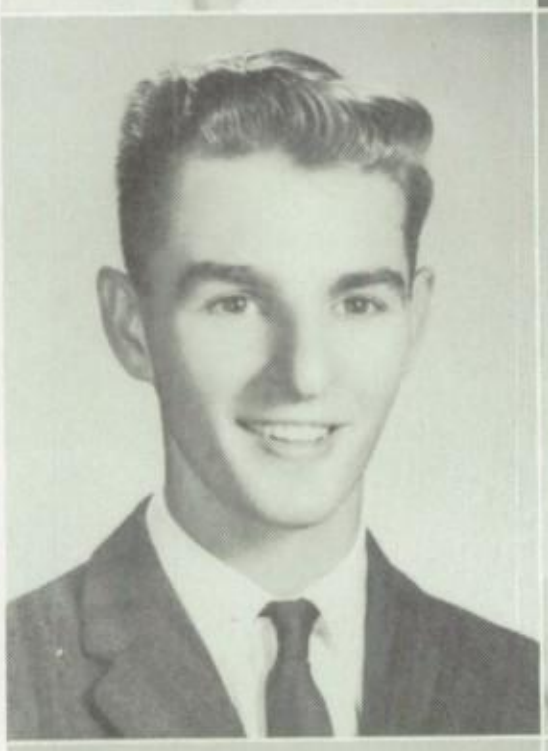
Soft-spoken, reserved, and charming, those are but a few words that can best describe this brown-haired beauty. Pat's many interests included Band, Allied Youth, Biology Club, G. A. A., and sewing, plus an exceptional talent for art. On the scholastic side, she enjoyed typing and English classes. Friendliness, a winning personality, and sincerity are sure to take Pat far in her future plans.

THEODORE JOHNSON

Ted's chief interests lie in the field of music, as can be seen by his membership in the school and pep bands. He enjoyed belonging to the Biology and Latin Clubs, while successfully completing most of his endeavors while with us. Ted plans to enroll either at Trinity College or Hobart, where he will major in music. We hope this future choirmaster's life will be one grand symphony.

JOHN JEFFERSON

John, a quiet, likeable classmate, spent a great deal of time working diligently in the Auto Shop. He enjoyed stamp collecting, but as an enthusiastic sportsman, he devoted most of his spare time to the great outdoors. John plans to further his training in the practical arts by entering Stevens' Trade School. For this capable young man, the Class of '62 predicts a prosperous future.

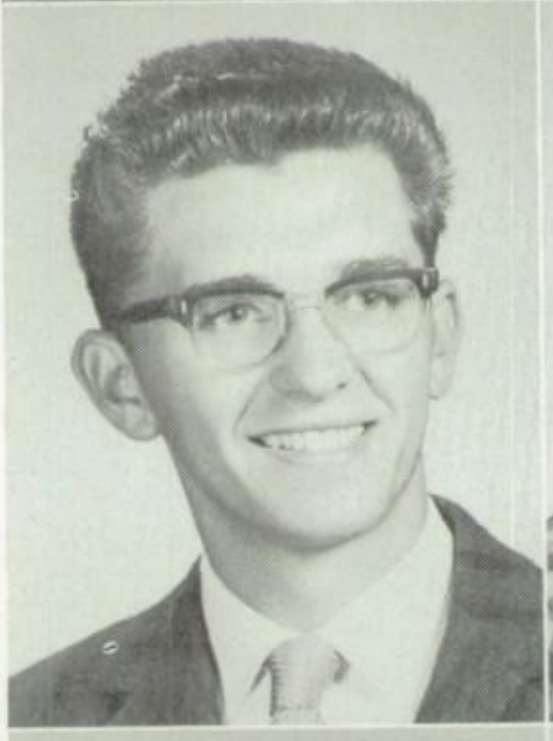


CAROL JONES

Who's that high-strutting, raven-haired majorette? It's none other than Carol, one of the squad's very capable co-captains. Carol, always ready for a good time, listed football games, swimming, and Mickey's as her favorite recreations. Although she is undecided about her future, the Class of '62 wishes her endless success in whatever she may endeavor.

ROBERT JEFFERSON

Who was one of the boys who helped to make our assembly programs possible? None other than Bob, a member of P. H. S.'s stage crew. As a color guard, Bob was among those who led our band into their colorful performances on the field. Some of his favorite pastimes, besides school work, were swimming and collecting coins. After graduation, Bob hopes to study electronics in the Air Force.



JUDITH KAPSCHOCK

Judy, a quiet girl with flaming red hair, supplemented the Class of '62 with her pleasant smile and manner. Though reserved in the classroom, she surely made her stay at P. H. S. a happy one. Judy has made no definite plans for her future; but whatever field she may venture to explore, the Class of 62 wishes her the best of good fortune and success.

ROBERT JOHNSON

Blend together a jovial, "well-fed" personality and an easy-going manner and the result is "Fudd." Even though injuries prevented Bob from seeing much action on the gridiron, he was a loyal and spirited member of the Varsity football squad. The pleasure he had driving around in his white Mercury and being with the gang at Mickey's were enough to soothe his pains from Chem class. With best wishes for success, we send Bob to the college of his choice.

CHRISTIAN KERBY

Did anyone mention cars? Working on one was a whiz for Chris. But if he were not to be seen around the motor of a car, you could bet your bottom dollar he was out hunting, for these two features did much to occupy Chris's spare time. Upon graduation, he plans to enter the United States Air Force. Good luck, Chris!

MARTHA KISSINGER

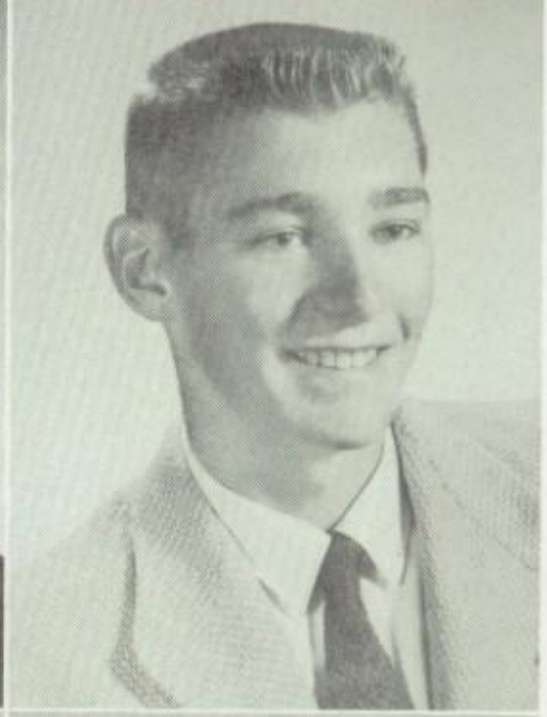
Martha will be missed (come the '62 football season) for her accustomed spot as a Program Sales girl, because she did yeoman service there as one of Mr. Sterner's finest. Martha gained much pleasure from reading, along with her other interests, swimming and skating in particular. Martha's ambition is to become a top-notch secretary, at which she will be quite efficient.

RICHARD KOCH

Dick is one of the more musically inclined members of the Class of '62. As a member of the band and also among the selected few in the Pep Band, Dick was always there playing heartily and bringing enthusiasm to the fans at the games. Art was another interest at which he excelled. As a member of the Sketch Club, Dick proved his ability in that field. Studying art education will be the immediate future plan of this lad.

NANCY KLIEBENSTEIN

Considerate and friendly, that's our Nancy. During her stay with us, she especially liked chemistry, English, and most of all, A Cappella. Nancy also lent her talents to the Junior Volunteer Nursing Corps and was a Program Sales girl. She will surely excel in the future as a nurse in the United States Navy and will be a credit to P. H. S. We wish you the very best of good fortune, Nancy.

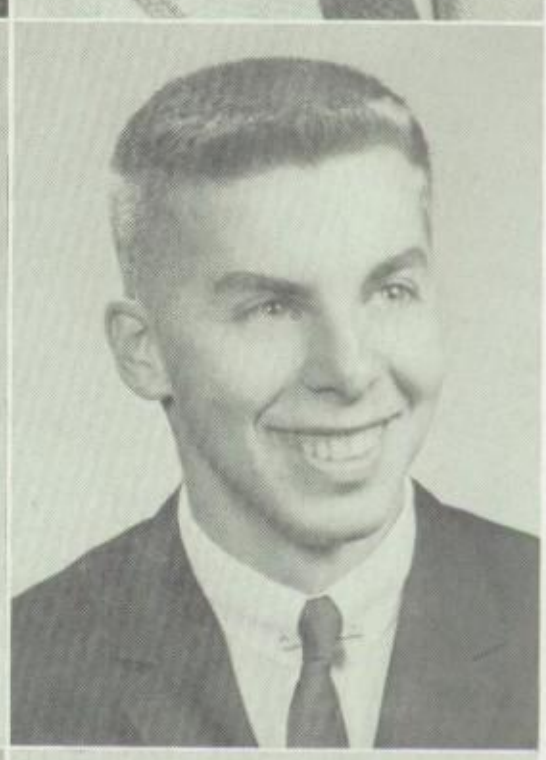


JOHN KOSICK

A friendly guy with a shy smile and a reserved manner are the words which can best describe John. His quiet good humor has graced these hallowed halls for the past four years. His presence will never be forgotten by those of us who knew him well. John occupied his spare time with his favorite sports: hunting, archery, and stock car races. We're sure that he will continue to "fly high" as he pursues further "enlightenment" in the Armed Services.

CAROL KLINE

Carol, whose warm smile shone through like the sun on a dark day, will long be remembered in P. H. S. During her stay here, Carol enjoyed art, typing, and shorthand. Her hobbies were collecting records and drawing. Carol's friendly personality will be a great asset to her in the future as a secretary to some lucky executive. Best of luck, Carol.



LESTER KRASNO

A party at my house!!! Again!?!! These words could only be uttered by Les, our great party thrower this year. Before becoming a senior, Les was the "shy guy," but now we know differently. He could often be seen cruising in his white Impala or going along with anything the crowd wanted to do. This considerate, witty young fellow hopes to follow his father's footsteps in becoming a top-notch lawyer. With a fond farewell, we wish him happiness and prosperity.

ROBERT KNITTLE

Bob, a reserved fellow, had many hidden assets. As captain of Mr. Sterner's cross country teams, he ran many a mile for P. H. S. On Friday nights, Bob could be found supporting our football team. His varied interests went from math to gym. In the future, he plans to specialize in the field of forestry. We, the Class of '62, know this avid hunter and archer will hit the "bullseye" of success.

BARBARA KROP

An Oscar is our "Kroppy's" due for her commendable portrayal of a beautiful and bewitching Morgan LeFay in our Senior Play. "Let's have a party," was this gal's favorite expression, and her presence added liveliness to many a party, indeed! B'nai B'rith Girls, Biology Club, and Annual Staff (not to mention German III and art), were only a few of Barbara's many activities. As she prepares to enter either art school or college, we bid a sincere — and a bit sad— "Auf Wiedersehen" to our vivacious "Kroppy."

JOHN KUHL

Red wavy hair and a spattering of freckles are the trademarks of John. This likeable guy was a member of A Cappella Choir, the Vocalaires, DeMolay, and served as a capable youth president of M. Y. F. If anyone asked John what his favorite subject was, the answer was always, "Mr. Schnerring's chem class." We wonder why? John plans to spend the next four years in the Army and then on to the School for State Police at Hershey. Best of luck, John.

KAREN LEFFLER

A friendly smile and a cheery "hi" were the trademarks of Karen. Although she was kept busy with G. A. A., Home Ec Club activities, and Future Teachers of America (treasurer), Karen still found time for the Senior Play, where as "Mrs. Bennett," she capably proved her acting ability. Singing was one of her fortes. Her musical talents enabled her to participate in several District Choruses. To a future English teacher, go our wishes for a life of happiness.

THELMA LAFEY

Though shy and quiet, Thelma's presence was sensed by all. In addition to piping with the Highland Lassie Corps, she was a member of Biology Club, A. Y., G. A. A., and Senior Y-Teens. She was partial to dancing and swimming as leisure time activities. After graduation, Thelma plans to enter the Peirce School of Business and become a secretary to some lucky executive.

PATRICIA LEFFLER

Pat certainly added charm, friendliness, and good looks to the halls of Pottsville High. Always ready for a good time and brim full of energy, she was a "solid" member of Mrs. Shuman's cheerleading squad for the past three years. Other activities of this capable member of the senior class included secretary of All-Club Council and membership in G. A. A., A. I. D., Senior Y-Teens, and Annual staff. For the immediate future, Pat plans to enter the secretarial field, but her real desire is to become an airline stewardess.

MARILYN LANG

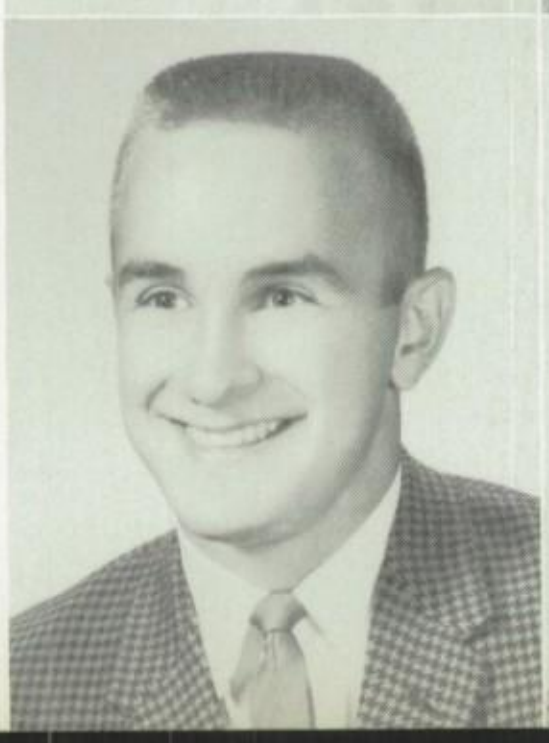
Quiet, attractive, and well liked, Marilyn will long be remembered by her classmates. This outstanding girl divided her spare time among commercial lab (What would we have done without her!!), Allied Youth, G. A. A., Senior Y-Teens, and Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff. Come June, Marilyn hopes to become a civil service worker in Harrisburg. Hats off to a future government employee!!

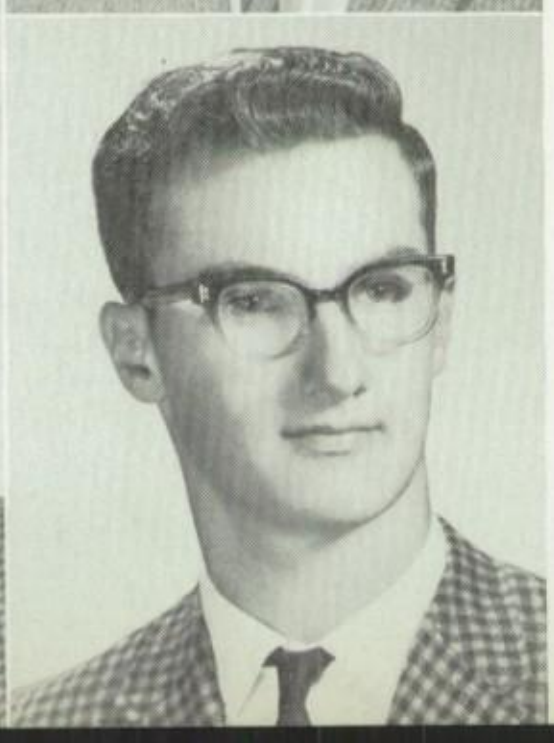
KENNETH LICKMAN

With a keen sense of humor and a personality to match, Ken was certainly one of the better liked members of his class. He gave his best as a member of Mr. Sterner's Cross Country and Track and Field teams. Cars and racing were high on his list of extra-curricular activities. Ken has his sights on college. With his friendly manner, he is sure to encounter little trouble in moving forward.

MICHAEL LAZARCHICK

This dynamo, nicknamed "the flying halfback," was one of our outstanding football co-captains. Pint-sized, but full of energy, Mike's spectacular efforts in the Thanksgiving Day game will long live in the memories of P. H. S. followers. Despite his many extra-curricular activities (president of T. K. D., member of Varsity Club, and the Track and Field squads), he maintained a high academic average. Mike plans to enter the Naval Academy where he is sure to become a fine midshipman.



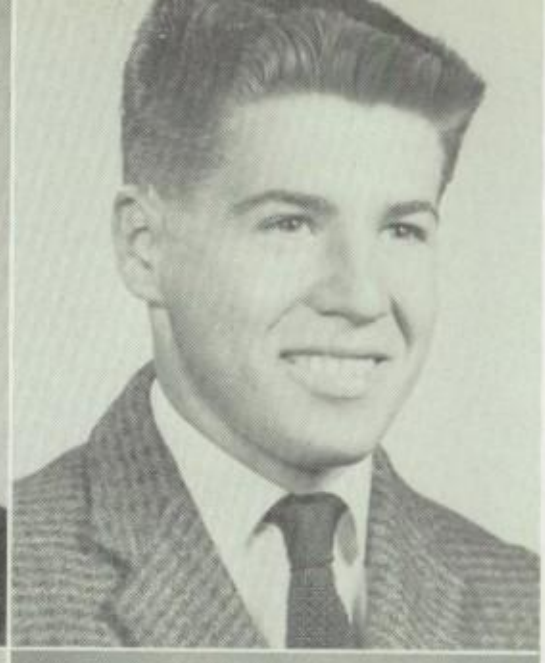


RANDALL LINDENMUTH

Randy, with his quick wit and ever-ready smile, was sure to provide fun in any group. Classes were, indeed, livened by his presence. A good student, he was a member of the National Honor Society, besides participating in the band. Randy possessed the art of conversation, which he used to make countless friends. Upon graduation, this likeable fellow plans to attend Penn State University.

IAN LIPTON

Call him Ian or Merlin, the mystical wizard he portrayed so well in the Senior Play. Whatever name one uses, Ian will always be remembered for his dramatic and artistic abilities. He proved the latter as a member of the Sketch Club. While he enjoyed football and horseback riding, he would never give up the chance to fly. Ian's liking for history and Latin should help him towards his goal—being a lawyer.

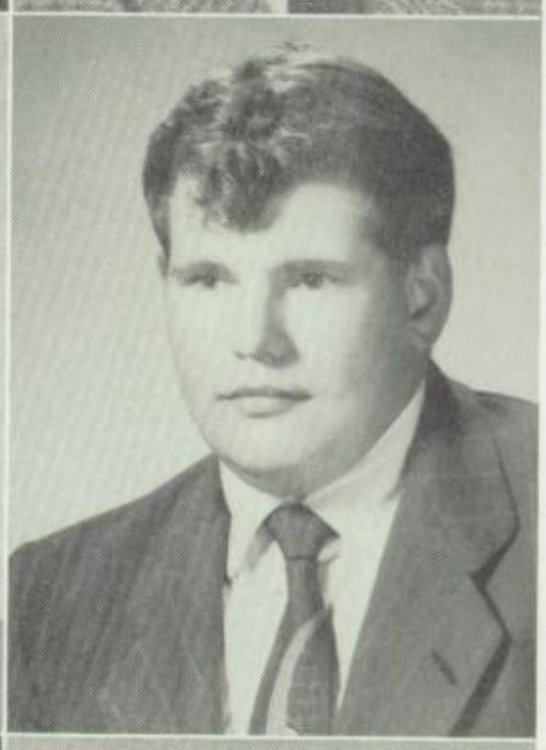


ANDREW LUKACH

Andy, as he is known, always has a grin and a smile for everyone. A former machinist, he was later found toiling in the Distributive Education field. Andy loves to tinker around cars and enjoys water skiing. What more can we say about a fellow who has the makings of a great Marine, except that we will always remember him as a "solid" friend.

LINDA LORD

Although her stature is short, "Dewey" is every inch a fine gal. It is hard to see how anybody who doesn't take vitamin pills could have so much pep. Linda was a member of the Kiltie Corps, but her talents, however, were far from limited, since she was quite proficient at both ice skating and cooking. With determination and the will-to-do, we're sure Linda will lead a very useful life.



LEONARD LUTCHKUS

Leonard, usually quiet, is one member of the male population of P. H. S. who enjoyed taking the commercial course. He claimed any subject as his favorite, except English. Len, a man of the great outdoors, lists hunting, fishing, and eating as his preferred recreations. Although this amicable guy is uncertain about his future vocation, we extend our best wishes for happiness and prosperity in the field of his choice.

LIZANNE LOTZ

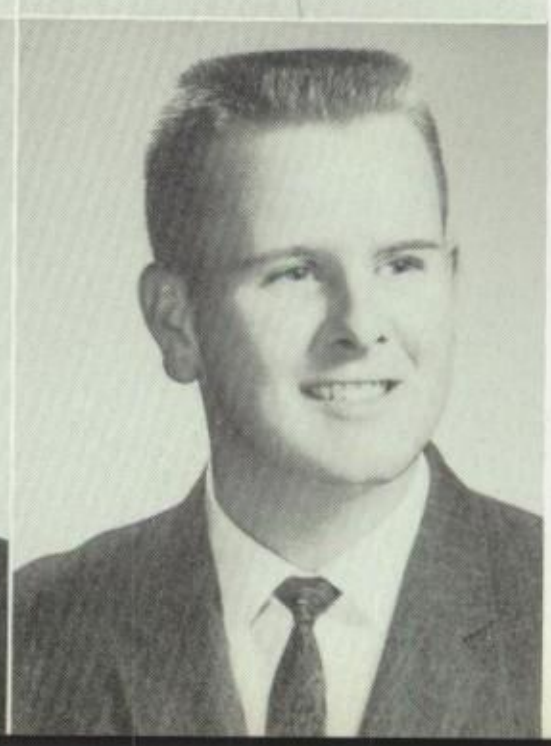
Lizanne, a red-headed lass whose great enthusiasm for sports enabled her to be selected by Region III of the Girl Scouts to attend the 1961 All-State Wilderness Encampment in Oregon, is both energetic and ambitious. She was a capable member of G.A.A., the Annual Staff, A. Y., Kiltie Corps, and was vice-president of the Library Club. Lizanne intends to enter Kutztown State College to become a teacher, then eventually take upon herself scout executive duties.

MARY ANN LUTCHKUS

Mary Ann, a tall blonde with a lively personality, really seemed to enjoy her four years at Pottsville High. During her stay in the "Castle on the Hill," she rendered valuable service to the A Cappella Choir and to the cafeteria force, where her associates looked upon her aid as invaluable.

RICHARD LOWE

Red hair and freckles (though he hated them both), a wonderful smile, and an unusual sense of humor, all made our Student Council president a chap we'll long remember. For a guy who didn't like mixed classes, he fared not too badly in the "femme" field. His other "loves" were football, dancing, and overnight hikes. His easy-going, carefree attitude inspired many a friendship and will continue to serve him well. Of this, we're certain!



WILLIAM LYNCH

Bill is of the breed that believes a joke is made to enjoy. He will always be remembered for the fine work he did in the electric shop. Always the life of the party, Bill will always be a true friend. "No sweat" is his byword. But his determination, spirit, personality, and a blue uniform will be his wings to success in the United States Air Force.

WARREN MALICK

"Archie," as Warren is known, is a very hardworking fellow. He enjoyed English, but rated German as his favorite subect. (Mrs. Schartel, though, had to crack the whip!) This quiet chap had quite a talent as a "keeper of the bees," which occupied a great deal of his spare time. Warren is undecided whether to enter the ministry or the teaching profession, but it's certain that he will "bee" a success in whatever he chooses.

ARLENE MATTA

A witty, friendly, and pleasant gal, Arlene was a member of the Distributive Education class. She enjoyed retail training and considered it the best of her subjects. "Cupcake" was either at the Coney Island munching on a hotdog or dancing to her favorite records. Other activities included skating and swimming. Although Arlene's future is undecided, such a fine girl will surely be successful in the retail merchandise field.

HAROLD MARBERGER

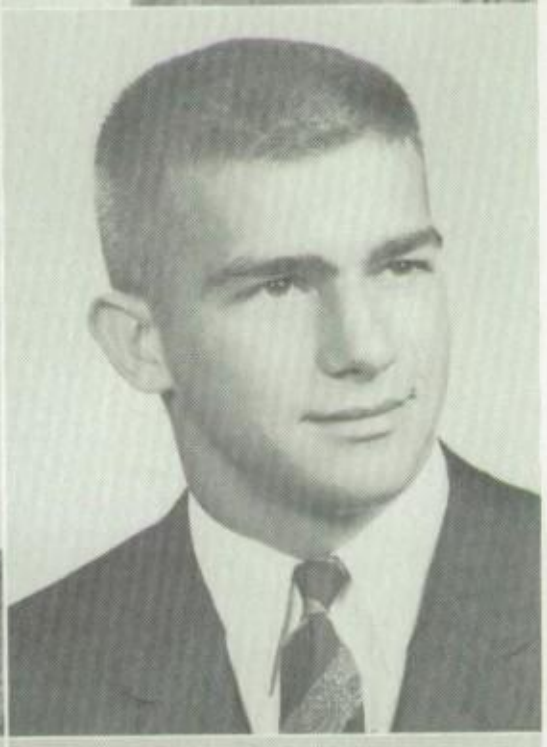
During his four years at P. H. S., we heard little from Harold, but we always knew that he was present. Working after school in a retail food market took much of Harold's time, but he also "tinkered" with the maintenance of trucks and cars. To this future retailer, who hates skimpy sandwiches, go best wishes as he takes to the road in his life's work.

BARBARA MATTHEWS

Never at a loss for words, this gal's ready humor and penetrating wit provided many hilarious situations. In addition to being the capable Feature Editor of the Hi-S-Potts Annual, Barb also was an active member of Sketch Club, F. T. A., Biology Club, National Honor Society, and Band. A real "pro" on the dance floor, she also enjoyed reading and sewing. Barb's future plans include college, where she's "a sure thing" to do a superior job.

TODD MARCH

A winning smile and a friendly manner made Todd a vital part of the Class of '62. A loyal supporter of all sports at P. H. S., he also enjoyed playing basketball himself. When not spending time on his after-school job, he occupied himself with his stamp collection and putting model cars together. Todd didn't have a liking for either English or P. O. D., but he did enjoy drawing very much. The latter will help him toward his goal—that of being an automobile designer.



JOHN MATUS

John took his four years in stride, never getting ruffled while others lost their heads. A mainstay on any team, football or baseball, "Butchie" was also a regular in any "bull" session. The rest of his time was taken up with T. K. D., Varsity Club, and eating. John's winning smile, his capable and energetic ways are sure to serve him well in the college of his choice.

RONALD MATLOCK

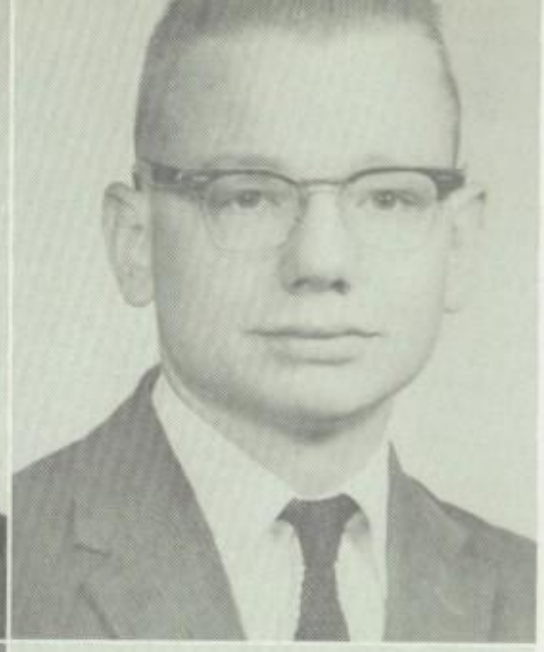
A worthy resident of New Philadelphia, Ron sent many sparks flying in Pottsville High's renowned machine shop. A sports fan and staunch supporter of all P. H. S. athletic activities, Ron added a "spark" of merriment to the halls of "dear old High." Although somewhat reserved and a little bashful, Ron was truly a good friend to those of us who knew him well. We may some day find him sailing those white-capped waves as a seaman in Uncle Sam's Navy.

PETER MAZAKAS

Pete, one of the quieter members of the Senior Class, was an enthusiast of hunting and flying models. While Pete loved Spanish, unfortunately, English was one of his disappointments. However, one of his constant delights was singing the praises of his native Marlin. Although he is uncertain as to his future, he will surely do excellently in his chosen field. Of this we are certain.

McDONOUGH

This dashing fellow transferred his talents to D. E. during his senior year. Good looking and always well groomed, Doug was an excellent model of "fashion for the male." A devotee of skin diving, he looked upon a whole new world underneath the water. Doug will enter the retail merchandising field, come June, where he hopes to become an executive trainee. May good fortune be yours in your climb to the top, Doug.

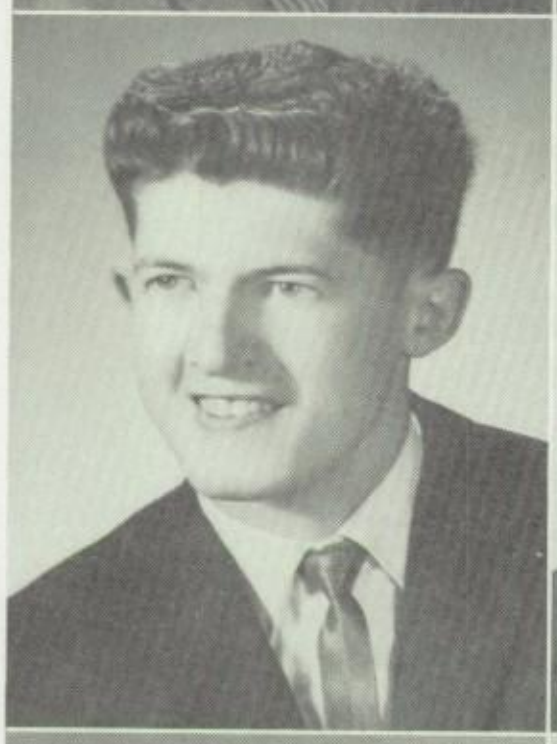


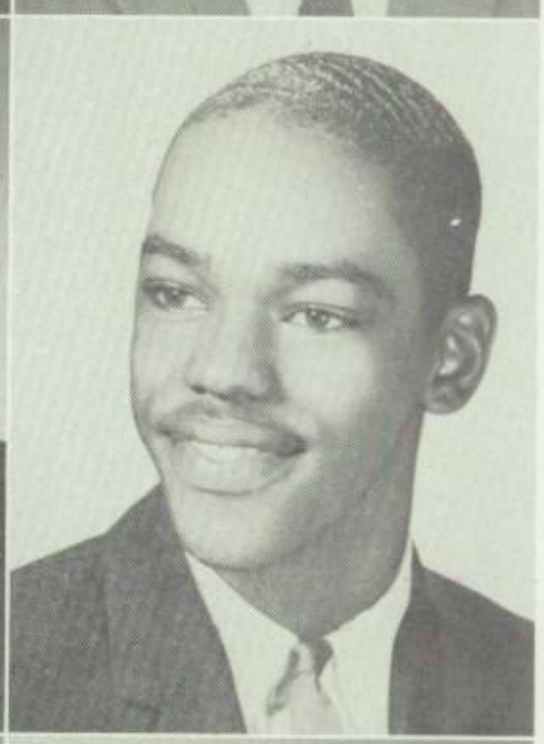
DAVID MOHR

Dave, a newcomer from Tamaqua in his junior year, was certainly an asset to our class. His bright smile and genial manner won him many friends. Dave claimed Pottsville High was tops and while here he displayed most of his talents playing a mean trombone in the band and pep band. Never lacking in ability, he also tuned pianos and organs. Although Dave's future plans are still indefinite, the Class of '62 wishes this adept lad success!

JOHN McELVANEY

Rip Van Winkle certainly had nothing over this lad's ability to sleep, for our "Shannigan" was one of the best rested members of the Class of '62. This friendly native of New Philadelphia was also noted for his easy-going nature and devil-may-care attitude. Sports, especially basketball, held quite an attraction for John. Upon graduation, John would like to enter Stevens' Trade School, and we're sure he will meet life with more than a yawn!





ELWOOD MOORE, JR.

Dancing and collecting records were some of the activities which took up Elwood's outside time. As one of our stalwart Color Guards, he added much to the marching band. Elwood's contribution to the sports of P. H. S. was track, which he enjoyed greatly. His ability to make friends quickly was an asset to his stay at P. H. S. May success always be his, while he serves Uncle Sam in the Air Force.

MARIE McKOSKY

Marie, who was the capable co-captain of the Majorettes, made many friends during her stay at P. H. S. This peppy, tall blonde lass belonged to Senior Y-Teens, but in school she seemed to like English above everything else. She also enjoyed listening to records, reading, and sketching. Marie plans to enter business school or a school of cosmotology upon graduation. May the best of everything be hers!

BARBARA MOOTZ

Though Barbara was a member of our class only since her junior year, she acquired many friends. This tall, slender, blonde miss kept her thoughts to herself—unless she was encouraged to voice them. Barbara rated business math and history as her favorite subjects during her stay at P. H. S. After graduation, she plans to go into clerical work, later modeling. May all your wishes be granted, Barb!

DAVID MILLER

Zoom! There goes Dave in his green Chevy! Although he was kept busy preparing for college and serving as president of the Sketch Club, Dave managed to include a part-time job in his activities. During his senior year, chemistry class and English were among his favorite subjects. His good looks and boyish grin will long be remembered in P. H. S. We know this future architect is sure to build a fine career for himself.

BARBARA MORAN

If one ever wanted to find this girl, all one had to do was to look in the Annual room. Always ready to help anyone on the staff, Barb was a big asset to the Class of '62. Allied Youth took up more of Barb's spare time and attention. With wit and friendliness, Barb made many lasting friendships throughout her stay at P. H. S. She's another reason why it should be a pleasure to be a hospital patient, for this pulse-raiser is going to be a pulse-taker. 'Tis a worthy profession, Barbara!

JOHN MORAN

John was one of our commercial enrollees who rated typing as tops on his list of favorite classes in school. An ardent sports fan, he played the role of both spectator and participant. His support was always given to our great football and baseball teams, and while he did not participate in school baseball, he played plenty of it in his spare time. To a future "Swabbie" in Uncle Sam's Navy, we wish clear sailing in the years ahead.

VIRGINIA NEIFERT

Who's our little miss from the fair borough of Palo Alto? It's none other than Ginnie, a girl with many interests, especially dancing, skating, and listening to music. Her years at P. H. S. will prove to become fond memories. She claimed she liked math (during school hours), but afterwards having a general good time was her favorite pursuit. Ginnie plans to become a telephone operator. Here's a "hello" girl we must reluctantly say "goodbye" to.

BARBARA MORTIMER

What can anyone say but "Wow!" after spending four years with this whirlwind. Barb competently managed to be cheerleading captain, president of A. I. D., prexy of the Associated Choirs, and secretary of the Senior Class, while battling her way through German III. Barbara's plans include college, where she'll "fashion" a wonderful future as a dress designer.

MILDRED NEWTON

Millie, one of our very pretty gals from York Farm, worked very hard at whatever she chose to do. Working on Annual staff and selling football programs rated high on her extra-curricular activities list. We will always remember Millie's pleasing smile and warm personality and we certainly wish this member of the Football Queen's contest the very best as a medical secretary.

LINDA MYERS

Friendly, cheerful, and full of pep, that's Linda. Always out for excitement and fun, she could be found dancing to her favorite musical group, the Jordan Brothers. She has contributed her talents as an able member of Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff and Choir. Upon graduation, Linda will be off to Reading where she will dial S-U-C-C-E-S-S as a Bell Telephone operator.

ALBERT NORKUS

Al, the "body-smasher" of the football team, brought out of the hills of Middleport a smile and a cheerful disposition that will never be forgotten. With his pleasant personality and flashy smile, "Nork" was always ready for a party or a night out with the boys. Al was also one of Mickey's frequent visitors. As he enters one of our Armed Services, we will all say, "Al is a true friend, who'll be missed by everyone."

JOSEPH NAWROCKI

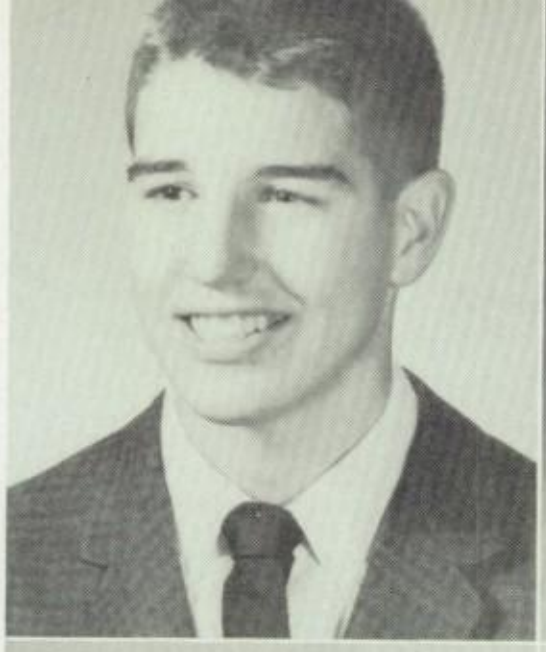
Tall and good-looking—that's Joe. His friendly nature is just one of the many reasons why he goes over big with the girls. This well-rounded fellow was a reliable man on the gridiron and an asset to the track team. To enter college or to join the Armed Forces is his problem at the moment. P. H. S. will miss you, Joe. The Class of '62 wishes you a happy, prosperous future.

LORRIN OLDS

Manager of Best and Company or chief buyer for Saks Fifth Avenue: that's where Lorrin's experience in D. E. class will most likely lead him, he hopes! This likeable, well-groomed chap is sure to go far in whatever field of retailing he may pursue—if swimming, hunting, and fishing don't take up too much of his time. We'll be looking for you in New York, Lorrin, five years from now. . .

WILLIAM O'REILLY

This lad was known for his many "projects" and wild ideas. Although he came to us in his junior year, he made his presence felt. Among his many accomplishments we may add his being top candy salesman in the AFS Drive. One could always expect a hearty hello and a devilish smile from "O'Reilly." His enthusiasm and school spirit were felt in the halls as well as at the games. Although undecided about his career, he will most likely succeed at whatever he endeavors.

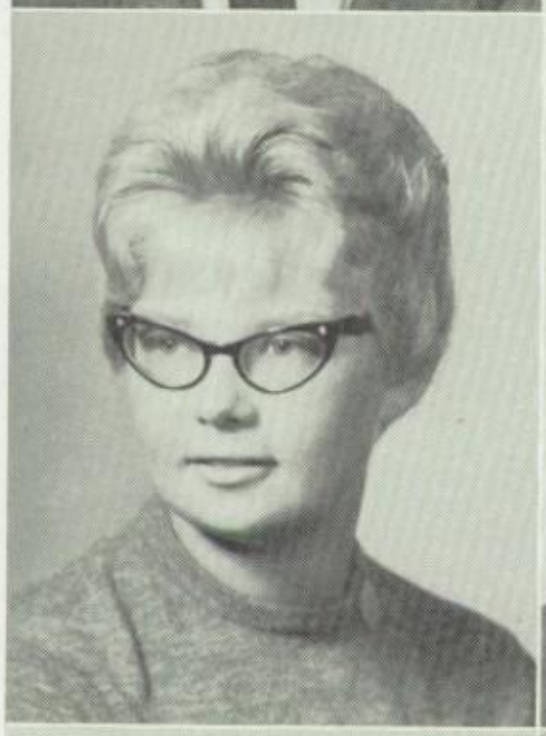


CAROL PEPPER

Carol, who's known for her passion for dancing, seemed to enjoy every day spent in the "Castle on the hill." An active member of Senior Y-Teens, Carol also belonged to Commercial Lab, Program Sales Girls, and to G. A. A. Her even disposition, cheery smile, and friendliness will certainly assure her success as a secretary.

PENNY PARK

This cute, friendly gal (with a most pleasing alliterative name to match) was a favorite among all of her associates. Treasurer of the Student Council, secretary of the Associated Choirs, piper in the Kilts, Penny was a distinct asset to whatever organization with which she was associated. A devotee of reading and painting, Penny has a sparkling smile that will match her personality. She's on her way to college —and further honors.

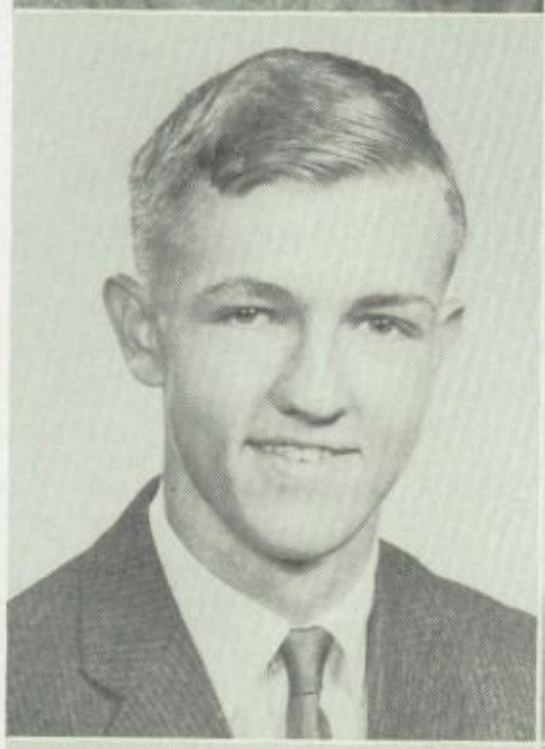


FRANK PERON

Frank, a little on the quiet side, was a great fellow to know. He possessed a keen sense of humor and the ability to get along with anyone. Most of his spare time was spent working in a gas station, but he still found time to enjoy target shooting and tinkering with cars. Frank's plans for the future include either college or some branch of the Service.

ROBERT PATTON

We always thought Bob was shy. Then we got to know him! As the honorary lawyer of Latin Club, Bob ably used his intelligence, which won him the Franklin and Marshall Achievement Award. A member of National Honor Society, Bob's interests were not all academic. Sports and various stamp and coin collections took up a great deal of his time. Latin and chem were this guy's favorite subjects in P. H. S. We know that in the future Bob will mix a compound of happiness and success for himself. To a very nice guy — VALE!



JUDITH PICTON

Judy, a witty girl with an eye for good times, has surely left a warm impression on everyone who knew her. She especially enjoyed working in the Commercial Lab, being a program sales girl for Mr. Sterner, and belonging to Y-Teens. Roller - skating and collecting records were among her favorite pastimes. Her ability to get along with people will be a great asset to her chosen career as a secretary.

IRIS PENSO

How could the Class of '62 ever have gotten along without Iris? This fun-loving gal, with her vibrant personality and well-known laugh, added much to many a conversation by dropping sly notes of wisdom (??). Iris was a member of A. I. D., B'nai B'rith Girls (vice-president), F.T.A., and G.A.A. She rated German as tops and devoted (?) much of her time to trying to master it! As Iris moves toward the field of social work, we bid her a fond farewell. May the very best be always hers!

HOWARD POLLMAN

The purr of a motor or the shot of a gun are the two sounds that mean the most to Howard. His love of cars and his avid interest in sports did much to make his world go 'round. In school, Howard rated Miss Foley's English class tops. To this Navy-bound boy the Class of '62 wishes plenty of luck, success, and happiness!

RICHARD PRESTILEO

A friendly smile and a quick hello—that's our Rick. Mr. Schnerring can breathe a sigh of relief now that this cute fellow is about to leave his chemistry class. That Chem Lab will never be the same! In our band, as well as out of school, this rhythmic fellow rates drums as his favorite instrument. As Rick sails away from P. H. S., we know he will navigate a smooth course in the Navy.

RUTH REED

Ruthie was one of our cute, peppy little girls who always wore a smile and loved to have fun. Her many interests, ranging from sports to dancing, were as varied as her activities, which included G. A. A., Youth Fellowship, Rainbow, F. T. A., and Senior Y-Teens. A "whiz" in math, Ruthie claimed Mr. Liddle's class as tops. A future math teacher is just the right key to Ruthie's successful future.

CAROL PRETTI

Carol, a hard-working student in the Commercial course, could often be seen laughing and having fun. Being a G. A. A., a Program Sales Girl, and a member of Senior Y-Teens kept Carol busy, but she also found time to cheer our team to victory. After graduation, her aim is to attend Ford School of Business. All of us in the Class of '62 hope your ambition will be realized, Carol.

WALTER REED

For the first two and a half years of his high school days, Walter gave generously of his talents to Mr. Delpaz's band. This likeable fellow enjoyed Mr. Drum's auto shop above all other school activities. In his spare time he used his knowledge by working with cars or by reading books about that favorite pastime of his. It looks as though the Air Force has another recruit from P. H. S. come September.

NANCY PUZAUSKIE

Tall, striking in appearance, blonde — that's Nancy. She found pleasurable the experiments in Chem Lab, but shied away from making oral reports. Nancy was active in the goings-on of both the Home Ec and the Spanish Clubs. As of now, her plans for the future are uncertain, but she is "on her way" to something worthwhile. Of that, we are certain.

JOSEPH REEVES

Joe, one of the most popular fellows in the class, will always be remembered for his hilarious portrayal of Sir Sagamore in our great Senior Play. Joe's talent for music was clearly shown by his participation in A Cappella Choir. "Yogi's" favorite activities, besides having fun, included Spanish Club, hunting, and driving his pride and joy, "a blue and white Ford." We wish Joe the best of everything, as he endeavors to become a history teacher.

MIRIAM QUINN

Mimi, a pretty bundle of pep and freckles, proudly hails from the great metropolis of Palo Alto. This gregarious young lady won many lasting friends at P. H. S. with her wonderful personality and pleasing smile. Mickey's, football games, and track meets took up much of her leisure time, as did English, her favorite subject. Mimi devoted her efforts to G. A. A., Senior Y-Teens, and Allied Youth, as well. She plans to attend business school after graduation. The Class of '62 is certain she will be the "model" of success and happiness.

ROBERT RENNINGER

Watching a P. H. S. football game or playing church baseball, Bob would put his "all" into the things he did. Like many students of the school, lunch period was his favorite period of the day, and we are sure he never missed one. After graduation, Bob plans to enter the Air Force or Navy. Our hats are off to you!

THOMAS RENNINGER

Here is another Port Carbon boy whom Pottsville High was glad to have for four years. At times when he was not working or studying, Tom could usually be seen dancing or adding his charm and good humor to a party. His main interest was doing his share as a member of the Distributive Education course. Although he is undecided about his future, we are sure Tom will go down the road to success.

MARY E. ROBERTS

Here's a gal who really makes the most of life! Full of fun and always ready for a laugh, Mary has made many friends and memories during her stay at P. H. S. The Commercial course has claimed this fine female, and Mary rated bookkeeping as one of her favorites. In whatever she does, Mary's good nature and ability will surely bring credit to her.

JO ANN RIOTTO

A student in the Business Education course, Jo Ann was one of the quieter members of our class. She especially enjoyed participating in the Home Economic Club's activities but contended that dancing and driving were her favorite pastimes. Jo Ann intends to further her knowledge at the Ford School of Business. May this future secretary always tap the keys of happiness.

MARY LOU ROBERTS

Does anyone hear a noise from room 105? It must be Mary Lou in her favorite pastime—enjoying Solid Geometry. As president of the Library Club, "Molly" was known for her infectious smile and ready laughter. Even though "Molly" was on the honor roll consistently, she had time to belong to G. A. A., A Cappella, F. T. A., and National Honor Society. Since she was a good dancer, "Molly" could usually be found at the Globe on Saturday nights. The Class of '62 wishes Mary Lou the best of luck in the future!

BILLIE RITTENHOUSE

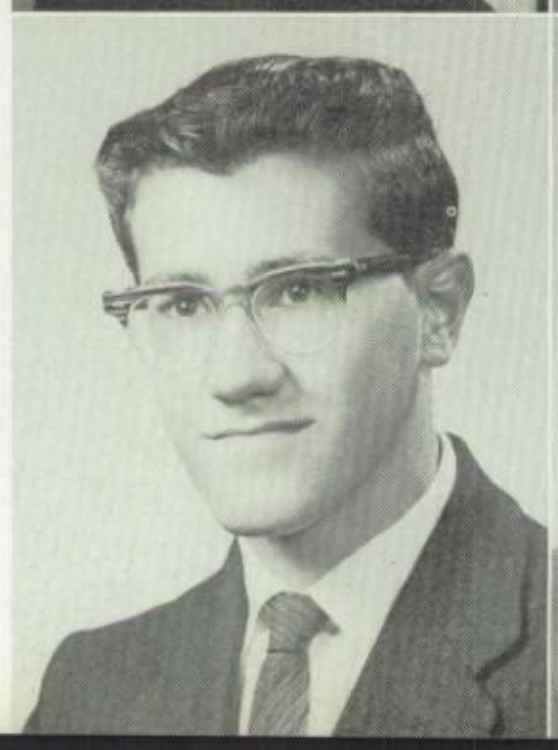
A pretty face and a sweet nature combine to characterize Billie. This agreeable miss enjoyed travel and fine art, but claimed algebra as her pet dislike. Among Billie's many hobbies was collecting statuettes and pennants. Empire Beauty School will claim this young lady as its own upon her graduation from P. H. S. We wish her success and a "beautiful" future!

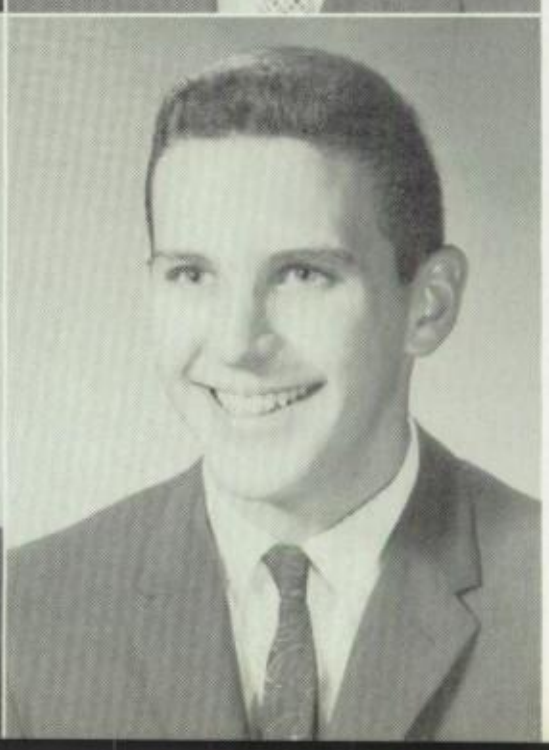
MICHAEL ROBERTS

Mike, whose characteristically mischievous smile was well known throughout the school, was indeed an asset to our class. The possessor of a keen talent for art, Mike admirably filled the job as art editor for the Hi-S-Potts Annual. Active in Boy Scouts, his activities also included Sketch Club (naturally) and DeMolay. Mike's hobbies, rare rocks and fossils, should help him greatly in his chosen field of study—geology.

THOMAS RIZZUTO

Tom, a member of our fine Distributive Education course, gave all of his extra time to outdoor sports, especially hunting and fishing. If, by any chance, the first day of hunting and fishing season happened to fall on a school day, rest assured, Tom was not in school! He could always be seen cheering to full capacity at the football games. Although his plans for the future are uncertain, we're sure he'll find happiness and satisfaction in his chosen work.





ALLAN RUBIN

Al, always pleasant and obliging, was one of the more good-natured members of our class. He rated Mr. Schnerring's chem class as "tops" and was usually found confused (???) in Frau Schartel's German class. Al constantly got to our "away" games in his pride and joy, a white Ford convertible. His talents were given to A. Y. and A. Z. A. To a well-liked chap and future pharmacist, we wish only the best.

ALEXANDER RULAVAGE

Alex, a reserved member of P. H. S., came to us from the great metropolis of New Philadelphia. He was a member of Miss Curran's Distributive Education course. Although his job occupied much of his spare time, he still enjoyed hunting, one of his favorite pastimes. Although his future plans are uncertain, we are sure he will succeed in whatever he undertakes.

ROBERT SCHUMM

A hearty laugh and an affable personality characterize Bob. Flying a plane and making pizzas took up most of his time, but he still maintained a high scholastic average. Bob enjoyed advanced algebra and solid geometry, but was always "floored" by Mrs. Schartel's homework. While adding much harmony to the school with his musical ability in Band, he also was a member of the Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff and the Biology Club. Bob is bound to "fly high" in his aeronautical engineering career.

DOROTHY SCHAEFFER

Fun-loving and carefree was this contribution from Yorkville to the Class of '62. "Dottie" enjoyed Saturday nights either dancing at the Globe or going to the movies. During her summer months she spent much of her time swimming. Mr. Luchnick's Commercial Lab period was her favorite in school work. There is no doubt, therefore, why she has chosen working as a secretary for her career.

THOMAS SEIGEL

A friendly but quiet chap, Tom always made his presence felt in school. His hobbies included hunting, fishing, and swimming. Tom could usually be seen working in auto shop or in drafting class. His favorites, however, were gym and lunch periods. Tom plans to enter either the Air Force or the Navy. Whichever branch of the Service is lucky enough to get this guy, we know it will be receiving one of the best.

ROBERT SCHUETTLER

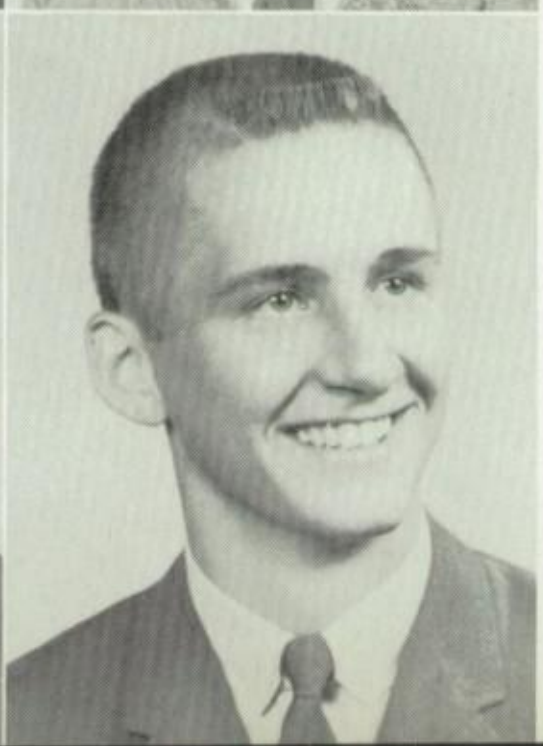
Pleasant, easy-going, and well liked describe Bob. One could always hear him talking with his many friends or singing with A Cappella, of which he was president. The pleasures of being on the basketball team and serving Student Council as vice-president were equaled by his misfortunes of homework and German class. The remainder of his time in P. H. S. was divided between the track team and the Biology Club. The best of good fortune, Bob!

WALTER SIEGEL

This quietly efficient chap with an ever-ready greeting for all, ably upheld the fine Siegel name in P. H. S. "Wally" served as a very capable secretary of our band, but despite his extra-curricular activities, he still found time to pursue his "meat"—the field of science. To this likeable guy go our best wishes for a happy and successful future in college, where he will major in chemistry.

RICHARD SCHUMACHER

Dick, who was well known throughout P. H. S., could usually be seen anywhere fun was taking place. His infectious laugh could always be heard in the middle of any gathering in or out of school. A sports enthusiast, he rated scuba diving and hunting high on his list of activities. Eventually, Dick plans to enter the United States Naval Academy. The best of good fortune to this midshipman.



WILLIAM SEITZINGER

"Skip," as he is known to his many friends, was a cheerful, good-looking chap who never failed to roam the nearby hills during hunting season. He was truly a man of the outdoors, a veritable Robin Hood. Scholastically, "Skip" especially enjoyed chemistry, Spanish, and typing classes. Aside from working on cars, he enjoyed membership in Spanish Club and was one of Mr. Sterner's stalwarts on the cross country team. May his future always be bright, as he enters the field of business.

RUTH SENSENIG

"Speech is silver; silence is golden," seemed to be the motto of this new addition from Lancaster County to the Class of '62. Although Ruth was with us for only one year, we did get to know and respect her and her reserved manner. We also found out that she enjoyed reference work puzzles and piano practice. We hope that the training she received at P. H. S. will help her to become the secretary that she plans to be.

CYNTHIA SOMMERS

Ever ready with an impish smile or profound(?) thought, our "Cynthie" is always welcome. In spite of her precious weekends, Mickey's, and her many school activities, she somehow managed to attain a high scholastic standing, and she will always be remembered for her famous quips. We are sure that her high ideals, interest in others, and terrific sense of humor will assure her an outstanding future in the field of journalism.

ELLEN SILFIES

This sweet, likeable girl tells us she really enjoyed her four years at P. H. S. She rendered most of her talents to the Home Ec Club and to Junior Volunteer Nursing in her freshman and sophomore years. When it came to parties, dancing at the Y.M.C.A., or talking on the telephone, Ellen was second to none. To this secretary, go strong wishes for a successful future.

CHARLES SPEHRLEY

"Corky," a refugee from the land of sun and fun, Florida, has added much to the Class of '62. It would never have been the same without his dry wit and friendly(?) smile. Intelligence is another one of his many attributes, and he proved this by becoming second man in the class and president of National Honor Society. In between broken bones, his extra energy was released in football and basketball, in which he excelled. "Corky's" mathematical and calculating mind should take him far in his chosen career of engineering.

GEORGE SMITH

A reserved manner, a friendly smile—that's George! Although sometimes at odds with the academic department, he did manage to keep his head above water. George claimed membership in the Band, Spanish Club, DeMolay, and enjoyed roller-skating and astronomy. However, his favorite activity was making the rounds in his prized possession — his car! George plans to become an undertaker. May he succeed in all his "undertakings"!

CHARLOTTE SPIESS

This lass is small of stature but big of heart. Charlotte is a peppy, vivacious bundle of femininity, a fact much appreciated by the flag-twirling corps, of which she was co-captain. A.I.D. and G.A.A. led her list of leisure-time activities. Charlotte was a student in the Business Education department, but eventually plans to enter the Rembrandt Beauty Academy to become a beautician. That this goal may be achieved is one of our many wishes for her.

LINDA SMITH

Linda, a composite of intelligence and efficiency, made many lasting friendships. Her varied interests went from swimming to enjoying pizza. As secretary of the Student Council, "Smitty" kept us well informed. Biology Club and Spanish Club were high on her list of extra-curricular activities. "Smitty's" musical ability encompassed her first love, dancing, as well as membership in the A Cappella Choir. As a member of the Annual staff, Linda worked hard to make this the best annual ever. To a future psychologist—best of luck in this "crazy" world!

KENNETH STALLER

This friendly guy was one of the reasons we had so much fun in our great senior year. Kenny could usually be found toiling "laboriously" in Mr. Davis' electric shop, or cruising around town in his car. When he wasn't doing this, Kenny conserved his energy in order to improve the purr of his car's motor. Our best wishes are with this lad as he leaves the halls of P. H. S. to enter the corridors of the "outside world."

CHARLES STANCHICK

Charles, a member of the auto shop, could always be seen working on cars, one of his favorite pastimes. Although "Chas" had little to say, he made his presence felt, especially in Mr. Freeman's math class, which seemed to be his favorite. Upon graduation, he plans to become one of Uncle Sam's men in the Army. Best of luck, "Chas"!

ANN STEWART

With a pleasing personality and a quiet manner Ann brightened the halls of P. H. S. and gathered many friends. As one of Mr. Luchnick's aides, she helped many a teacher by stenciling tests. Ann gave generously of her talents to Senior Y-Teens and Library Club. When her time wasn't taken up by her pet peeve, homework, she could be found dancing and having fun. As a future secretary, we hope Ann types a letter of success and happiness—addressed to herself!

BARBARA STEIDLE

"Laugh, and the world laughs with you" must be Barb's motto, for her sunny disposition and cheery smile always made bright the darkest corner. A Kiltie Corps lass, she found time in her busy life to participate in A. I. D., Biology Club, and Latin Club. Whether dancing to a popular tune or practicing the art of a first-rate chef, Barbara's ability was always evident. The Class of '62 bids a fond farewell to this future Florence Nightingale.

BRUCE STIDHAM

Bruce and shop work were synonymous, for most of his time and energy were spent in things of an industrial nature. He liked to work on cars and when he fixed them, we were sure they really stayed fixed. The knowledge gained at P. H. S. should be valuable to Bruce when he engages in the occupation which is both his hobby and his life's work. Happy motor-ing!

JUDITH STEPHENSON

A bundle of pep and lots of fun—that's our Judy. This very attractive flag twirler (co-captain) could be seen with a smile on her face at all times. Judy was always found dancing her troubles away. Shorthand and typing rated tops on her list of favorite subjects while at P. H. S. After graduation, Judy plans to attend airline school. To one of our "high-flying" gals, we sincerely wish the best of everything.

ALEXANDER STOKES

The whir of a motor, the shrill sound of a whistle, and the clanging of tools under a car hood are the sounds that mean the most to Alex. The study of cars and pursuing all sports, especially the field of swimming, were just two of Alex's favorite pastimes. Upon graduation, Alex intends to enter a trade school to study in the field of automotive engineering and later to enlist in the Army.

WILLIAM STEPHENSON

As one of Coach Flynn's famous eleven, Bill displayed the kind of sportsmanship that is always an ingredient of success. A member of T. K. D. and the Varsity Club, Bill's greatest interest was driving around town in his black Chevy, his pride and joy. Hunting and fishing were this guy's favorite(?) sports. Although his future plans are still undecided, we are sure Bill will "trap" the best and excel in whatever he attempts!

GEORGINE STONELAKE

Cheerful, animated, happy-go-lucky are the adjectives descriptive of Georgine. During her years at P. H. S., Georgine's specialty was the social side of life. While dancing and boys were to her liking, Georgine still found time to lend her talents to Band and G. A. A. "George" was an avid sports fan and participated in many of them herself, at which she was adept. With all her extra energy we are sure she will go far in her chosen field.

KATHLEEN STOTT

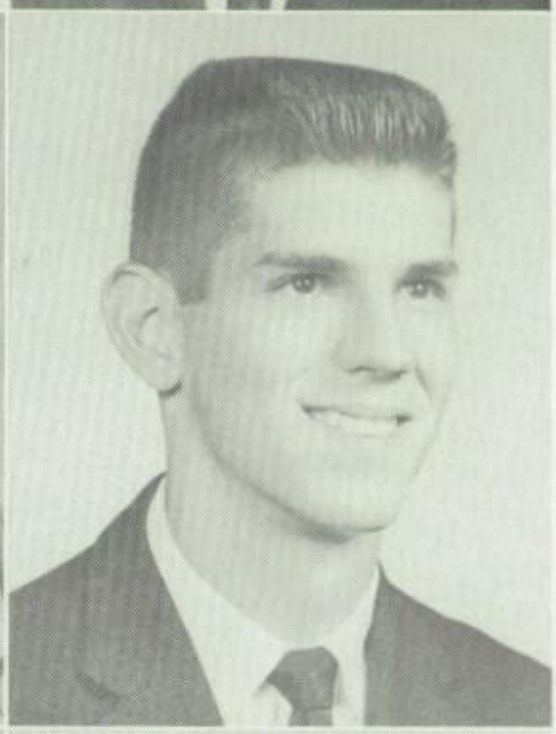
As president of Home Ec Club and vice-president of G. A. A., "Tish" really had her hands full. While her main interest was sports, this gal found time for her studies. "Tish" was also active in church activities, Scouts, and other outside clubs. Although Kathleen is uncertain about her future plans, we are sure she will succeed in whatever she undertakes, for she has what it takes!

JOSEPH TAMASHASKY

Joe, always seeking fun and usually finding it, was a big favorite among his classmates. "Chum" could usually be found in the middle of any "bull" session in the cafeteria. An excellent math student, he also enjoyed his two years of German. His dislike for getting up in the morning was equalized by his fondness for electronics, one of his hobbies. Joe's future plans include college, where he hopes to study engineering.

LAMAR STRAUSE

This talented, popular, and affable fellow was certainly very well liked by everyone. Lamar was a fine tackle on our football team for three years, but as a senior proved his services invaluable to Mr. Flynn as a student coach of the J. V. team. His talents in the field of athletics enabled him to become the fine sports editor of the Annual. Lamar carries with him the sincerest wishes of the Class of '62.



DAVID THOMAS

He had a deep voice and a devilish smile which so well benefitted that knight of King Arthur—Lancelot, in particular—whom he portrayed capably in the Senior Play. Besides acting, Dave held a keen interest in hunting and fishing. With the easy-going manner and warm humor that has made him a positive member of our class, he is sure to succeed as a United States Navy man.

JAMES STRAUSSER

Did anyone mention football? It must have been Jim, our fine co-captain. During his senior year he was chosen for the All-County and District 11 teams, received the Lions Club Award for the Most Valuable Player, and was voted All-State honorable mention. Jim's athletic ability was not only proved on the field, but also in basketball and track. This likeable lad was certainly an all-around guy. He served as a class officer, president of Varsity Club, and treasurer of T.K.D. To a future teacher, we say "thanks," and may the best always be yours.

DORIS THOMAS

Dotty, always ready with a smile and a cheerful "hi" for all, could usually be seen carrying a small black case back and forth to school. This talented gal capably lent her talents to Allied Youth, G. A. A., Girl Scouts, Senior Y-Teens, Band, and A Cappella Choir, of which the latter two rated as her favorites. Upon graduation, Dotty plans to enter Goldey Beacom and we are sure that she will attain her goal to be a capable secretary for some lucky man.

THOMAS STUTZ

Tom, with his blonde crewcut and captivating smile, quickened the pace of many a female heart in P. H. S. As one of our capable Student Council representatives, he devoted much of his time and energy in the interest of his fellow students. Although D. E. class kept Tom busy, there was time to spare for such activities as swimming, fishing, and ice-skating. We offer this amiable classmate a hearty wish for success as he pursues his career in retailing.

JOHN THOMAS

Here's one guy who never gets upset. John is an easy-going, happy-go-lucky fellow with a host of friends. Most of his time was well spent in Miss Curran's D. E. class and at his part-time job. Off hours he could always be found at Longo's or riding in a black Chevy. To a nice guy go the best wishes of the Class of '62 for a bright future!

ROBERT THOMAS

"Hank," as Bob will be known forever after because of his memorable performance in the Senior Play, added much life to our class. Bob was very musically minded and was an avid member of Band and A Cappella. He also participated as a tenor in the State and District Choruses. We, the Class of '62, know Bob will hit the highest note of success both in business school and later life.

VICTORIA TRUITT

Vicky, of the long brown hair and cheery hello, spent many of her after - school hours in the gym, competing in some field of athletic activity. This gal, proficient in shorthand and a crack typist, served Mr. Stabnau as a very competent secretary. She plans to pursue a career in this type of work. The future years will never find our Vicky "shorthanded" of friends or good fortune.

WARREN THOMAS

"One - two - three strikes; he's out!" This phrase was a joy to Warren, especially when he was on that mound. Whether in shop or on the field, Warren was always in there pitching. This lad from Port Carbon scored math as one of his favorites and enjoyed Mr. Freeman's classes. To become a member of the Air Force is among his future plans upon graduation.

JOHN TURNITSA

Although more or less soft-spoken, John has made many contributions to the Class of '62. One of his favorite haunts was the Globe, where he enjoyed "twisting" most of the night. Deer hunting was another of John's leisure - time activities. After graduation, John would like to enter the Armed Services. To a future serviceman, we wish the very best!

DIANE TOMCAVAGE

Although quiet, Diane was a cheerful gal. During these memorable four years at P. H. S., Diane gave of her talents to Senior Y-Teens and the Hi - S - Potts Newspaper staff. When her senior year rolled around, Diane found that Miss Gries' P. O. D. class was "tops" on her list of favorite subjects. Always full of energy, she could be found swimming and dancing during her leisure time. While Diane's future plans are indefinite, happiness will surely be her constant companion.

IRENE URANKO

Irene is a soft-spoken girl from the Commercial course, who spent most of her spare time at the Rembrandt Beauty Academy, as a beautician. She enjoyed advanced math and bookkeeping above all her other subjects. Irene spent much of her leisure time swimming and dancing. The best of luck to you!

JOAN TONITIS

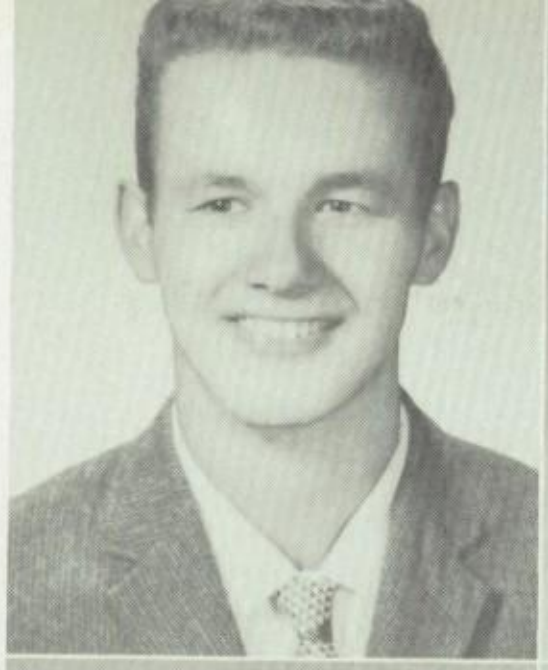
Joan, a cheery, friendly girl, will always be remembered as a wonderful friend to all those who knew her. This gal is really a happy-go-lucky person who loves dancing, listening to and collecting records, and skating. Her favorite way of passing a leisurely hour was reading; yet she rated gym as her favorite class. After leaving the "Castle on the Hill," Joan plans to become a secretary to some lucky executive.

WILLIAM VAN STONE

Although Bill was rather quiet, but very likeable, he certainly became a hit with his fellow classmates during his stay at P. H. S. Having a wonderful time, which always included bowling or roller-skating, was his favorite pastime. Although his future plans are undecided at the present time, we are quite confident that Bill will excel in his chosen field.

PATRICK WADE

Coming to us in his junior year, Pat soon acquired many friends through his quick wit and pleasing personality. Pat was a loyal member of the track team, hoping some day to be a participant in the Olympics. Dancing, roller-skating, and riding in his "hot Chevy" rated high as extra activities. Here's hoping that Pat "flys high" with success as he joins the Air Force upon graduation.



SANDRA WALCHAK

Tall and full of pep, our Sandy found Miss Curran's class a profitable D. E.-light. Her spare-time industry and ingenuity were invested in the activities of the Y-Teens. A turn on the dance floor or a lively game of bowling also helped make Sandra's world go 'round. We know this future beautician will sail through life on "permanent waves" of success.

DARLENE WAGNER

Darlene's friendly manner and wholesome personality dominated her every action. Swimming and dancing constituted the principal portion of Darlene's recreational program. During school hours she devoted her time and energy to typing, shorthand, and lunch. (She doesn't look it!) Darlene also participated in Y-Teens and Program Sales Girls. This little blonde's life will be just a "bowl of cherries," and we're sure she'll brighten any office as she follows her secretarial career.

KATHLEEN WALTERS

Kathy, an ambitious member of the class, liked anything connected with having a good time. Her favorite classes were typing and shorthand. Her hobbies consisted of dancing and collecting records, but much of her time was spent at Y-Teens and playing the bagpipes in the Kiltie Corps. After graduation, she plans to be a beautician.

ELIZABETH WAGNER

Pep, prettiness, personality plus—these are all synonymous with Bette. Some say that Bette was born into the wrong century, for her portrayal of Guinevere in the Senior Play proved that she has the attributes of a queen. This vivacious miss was also a loyal member of the Sketch Club, the Spanish Club, and the Kilts. Bette claims that art was her favorite subject. For Bette we predict a bright future as an art teacher.

MARY ELLEN WANCHICK

Is that a whistle we hear? We all know it's our Mary Ellen leading the band as our head majorette, and we know of no nicer leader to follow! Among her likes, Mary Ellen rated dancing and algebra as tops. She enjoyed being a member of Sketch Club, Spanish Club, and Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff. She will always be remembered for her fine organ playing and her passion for buying sweaters!

NANCY WAITE

This hard-working Waite is worth her weight in gold! Nancy's countless talents were evidenced in her excellent portrayal of Elaine in the Senior Play, as a bassoon player in the band, and as a tireless worker on the yearbook staff. Teachers, too, will recall her as a perfectionist in her class work. Nancy's on her way to Lebanon Valley College, then a career in medical technology. She can't miss!

JOHN WARGO

One of Mr. Flynn's gridiron men, John eats, sleeps, and talks football. A sport fanatic, this muscular and friendly lad names baseball, basketball, fishing, and hunting as favorite pastimes. Woodworking and Varsity Club hold his interest in school. Although his future is not definitely decided, John hopes to enter a branch of the Armed Services. With a fond farewell, we wish him the very best of everything!

CAROLYN WEAVER

Pert, perky, and petite mean none other than Carolyn. Despite her shortness in stature, Carolyn's efficient work, good humor, and friendly manner made her a classmate we enjoyed having. She capably served Mr. Luchnick in Commercial lab. Senior Y-Teens was her favorite avocation. Carolyn's ultimate goal is to enter the field of business and become a secretary to some well-deserving business executive.

RONALD WERTZ

Ron, one of the more reserved members of the class, favored typing and band as his top classes. His great interest in music enabled him to lend his talents as a capable clarinet player in the P. H. S. Pep and Dance Bands. After school hours, Ron enjoyed riding around in his Chevy. His plans for entering the Service and then the trucking business will surely ring out success for him.

DONNA WEAVER

Soft-spoken but hard-working is Donna. However, her quietness did not conceal any of her fine qualities. She is exceedingly interested in art and if dreams come true, Donna will enter Moore Institute of Art after graduation. Reading, painting (naturally), and summer outdoor sports are her favorite activities. Donna is a spirited follower of sports and a good sport herself!

DOROTHY WHITE

Pretty, perky, and pint-sized, Dotty is a popular classmate, indeed. She never spared herself as a varsity cheerleader, having served faithfully for four years. Dot was always "on the go," as treasurer of A. I. D., member of G. A. A., and the Annual staff, but in her spare moments she could be seen whizzing along in her blue Chevy. Come September, Dotty plans to enter college. This little miss is sure to have a bright and "cheery" future.

EDWARD WEISACOSKY

Ed — tall, dark, and you know what!—has just about everything going for him. Because of his superior play in Schuylkill County's annual North - South Dream Game (football), Ed was voted Most Valuable. In addition to the gridiron sport, his co-curricular activities included T. K. D., Varsity Club, basketball, and track. The future? A teaching career seems to be Ed's prime choice. How can he miss?

JOSEPH WOJCIECHOWSKY

This affable fellow really took a keen interest in drafting and machine shops while at P. H. S. Joe was also quite an outdoors man—he never seemed to tire of hunting and fishing. Upon graduation, Joe plans to enter either Stevens' Trade School or the Navy. Hats off to you, Joe—you're sure to succeed in whichever you decide!

ROBERT WERTZ

Here is one of the capable students in the auto shop curriculum. Bob not only enjoyed working on cars in school, but spent much of his leisure time doing the same. Hunting animals—as well as girls—was also on the top of Bob's "top ten list." To enter the Service is this graduate's immediate plan for the future.

DORIS WOMER

Doris, an enrollee of retail merchandising and one of Miss Curran's hard-working D. E. girls, was surely a welcome addition to our Class of '62. Doris possessed a fun-loving and carefree nature. She especially enjoyed dancing, bowling, swimming, and having a good time. After graduation, Doris plans to become a Bell Telephone operator. We can only wish her the best. May all her future dreams be "answered."

JOANNE WOZNICKI

Delightful, dependable, determined — that's Joanne. A cute gal of many talents, Joanne's activities included Latin Club, Kilts, and Hi-S-Potts Annual staff. Although she enjoyed typing, Joanne admits that she really got a "bang" out of chem class! Among her hobbies were swimming, dancing, and horseback riding. (She insists that there's nothing like the first horseback ride to make a person feel better off!!) Warmest wishes from the Class of '62 go with this classmate, who plans to enter the field of nursing.

JOHN YAISSLE

It's too bad there's not a whole page to devote to "Mr. Boss" of the Hi-S-Potts Annual, for Jack surely led the staff in making it the best ever. Jack's genial personality and constant wit were well known throughout the school. His favorite classes included English, history, and math. What happened to French, Jack? This lad's pet peeve was lots of homework, but cars were his special pastime. Studying Business Administration at Lehigh University will keep our editor busy for the next four years!

ANN MARIE WRONA

A tiny, cute, and likeable lass, Annie, as she was known to her many friends, particularly enjoyed chem class and lab. (We're still wondering why Mr. Schnerring talked about Middleport when she enterd the room.) As Marian in the Senior Play, she portrayed her part admirably. Annie, who was an enrollee in the academic course, participated in various co-curricular activities, among them: G. A. A., Hi-S-Potts Newspaper staff, Allied Youth, and Junior Volunteer Nursing Corps. Until this dark-haired miss becomes a Mrs., her career will be labled medical secretary.

ROBERT YOBLONSKY

Jalappa was well represented in P. H. S. by this redheaded lad who certainly enjoyed his four years here. Most of his enthusiasm was displayed in typing, Spanish, and art, but he was also interested in basketball and tennis. Being a lover of music, he was an avid member of A Cappella Choir. Although Bob's future plans are uncertain, we know that he'll do well in whatever field he chooses.

MICHAEL YODLOSKY

Mike, like most young men, was an enthusiast of hunting, fishing, and particularly enjoyed archery. Junior Varsity football also demanded much of his well-spent time. We should consider Mike a bit more than human, because he enjoyed math. This tall member of the Class of '62 will certainly defend us well as he wants to enlist in the Air Force. Plan to fly high, Mike?

MARY JO PURCELL

Well equipped with a sunny disposition and a friendly manner, our own Mary Jo set off on her journey to the snow-capped mountains of Styria, Austria, in August, 1961.

The first Pottsville High School student to participate in the American Field Service full school-term program, she has proven to be a very capable representative of our student body and our community.

Mary Jo's experiences in her Austrian school, where neither questions nor shoes are permissible, have been delightfully related in her letters to her family and friends.

While with us at P. H. S., Mary Jo put her superior intellect and capabilities to use as a member of our band, Biology Club, and French Club. Ranking first in her class when she left P. H. S. for Austria, she has become an honorary member of the National Honor Society.

As we happily await her return to America, we know that Mary Jo will find it a sorrowful task to take leave of the many friends she has gained in her Austrian "home away from home."

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

MUSTAFA ERGUNEY

From the far-away city of Trabzon, Turkey, dark-haired, smiling Mustafa came to Pottsville High School as our foreign exchange student for the 1961-'62 school term.

A congenial, warm-hearted, loquacious young man, Mustafa has won the sincere friendship and admiration of all his classmates. His visit with us has surely helped him to realize his purpose: a deeper, more complete understanding between the people of our two nations.

Numerous addresses to service clubs and other organizations, and participation in school activities occupied Mustafa's leisure time during his stay in our community. In his native land, he is active in scholastic sports, heads the debate committee of his class, and finds time to enjoy poetry, music, and dancing.

As we bid goodbye to you, Mustafa, we offer our heartfelt thanks for your visit and our best wishes for your happiness. May your dream of returning to America some day as a diplomat for your country come true!

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Pottsville High School was organized in 1926. Its two main purposes are to create cooperation between the faculty and the students and to promote the best interests of the school.

Among the activities of this year's Student Council were: Lyceum programs, the All-School Dance and Dance Contest, the Faculty Party, and the Penny-A-Week Drive. These latter contributions were used to assist needy families at Christmas time.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

Distributive Education is a program offered in a cooperative agreement among the federal government, the state government, and local boards of education.

Much of the student activity in this class is on an individual project or supervised study basis. The Distributive Education student has a dual responsibility: classroom achievement in the morning and on-the-job progress in the afternoon.

Distributive occupations rank third in the number of employment opportunities in this country; for this reason, we feel it is important that Pottsville High School offers this worthwhile method of training to the students of our school. The program enables both boys and girls to secure retail experience under observation, supervision, and guidance of the employer and the teacher-coordinator while attending school.

This year the community shared in the benefits of Distributive Education through an adult training program offered to the sales people and executives of our local stores. A Product Information Seminar was offered this year, designed to inform people of the newest developments in fabric, construction, and acquired methods of merchandising these fabrics.

All students of our high school have an opportunity to receive some training through the Distributive Education department by enrolling in our pre-Christmas training classes and thereby receive help in job placement.

The Distributive Education Class of 1962 conducted a boys' fashion show which was one of the highlights of the assembly programs.

A Hallowe'en Dance was one of the social events of the Distributive Education Class of 1962.

The students participated in the State Convention and were the hosts of a Student-Merchant dinner.

POTTSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The Band began the fall term with an enthusiastic drive for the new uniforms which were received in February. This included the First Annual Tag Weekend, covering the Mt. Carmel-Pottsville football game and the canvassing of the town, and a special request program performed by the band over WPPA.

On April 26, the Pottsville High School Band presented its 26th Annual Spring Concert. As usual, an excellent performance was given under the capable direction of Prof. Arthur L. Delpaz. In addition to fine precision drilling at our football games and the extra enthusiasm provided by the band at basketball games and pep rallies, this organization played for many parades, civic affairs, school socials, and for the Band Strawberry Festival sponsored by the Crimson Aides on May 26.

The band was capably represented at P. M. E. A. Eastern District Band by Susan Clark, flute; Vincent Bound, clarinet; and Paul Harris, clarinet; and at Regional II State Band by

Are colorful, delightful, and have a winning way.
With caps and kilts of plaid design,
Their drums and bagpipes loud,
The Pottsville High School Lassies have reason to be proud.

The Highland Lassies are now in their ninth successful year under the capable leadership of Mr. Arthur Reinsmith. They have the distinction of being one of the few high school units in the country and have proudly lived up to this honor by representing the school in numerous parades, including the Allentown St. Patrick's Day parade and a trip to Wilkes-Barre, where they were guests of the Boston Store. The "Kilties," who add much color to our football games, are led by Emma Jane Walters.

PEP BAND

The Pep Band was formed during the 1955-'56 school year. It first consisted of twenty-five boys from the regular band. Now the Pep Band has nearly fifty members and includes the fair sex. It plays at all the pep rallies and home games during the basketball season. This year the Pep Band, under the capable leadership of Paul Harris, was as much a part of the basketball season as the marching band of the football season.

THE 1961 SEASON

That the Crimson and White this year enjoyed one of the finest seasons in P. H. S. gridiron history is evidenced by the following:

1. For the first time in Pottsville High's history, it won eight consecutive games.
2. It finished in a triple tie (with Coal Township and Hazleton) for Keystone Conference first-place honors.
3. It ranked second on the long list of Eastern Conference team final standings.
4. It also won nine of its eleven games.

Also, Co-captain George Garrett was chosen for first string guard honors on the Associated Press, United Press, and the Big 33 All-State teams.

Quarterback Jim Strausser received the nod of his squad mates to be recipient of the Pottsville Lions Club Most Valuable Player Award.

Ed Weisacosky was voted Most Valuable Player in the Schuylkill County annual Dream Game.

Mike Lazarchick, Ed Weisacosky, and George Garrett were first team choices (by sports writers and coaches) in the Keystone Conference.

Hats off to Head Coach William Flynn and his assistants, John Smith and Terry Case, co-captains George Garrett, Mike Lazarchick, Jim Strausser, and all the members of the varsity squad!

POTTSVILLE 18 BLUE MOUNTAIN 7

Pottsville High scored on two long runs and turned a fumble near the goal line into another six points to defeat a spirited Blue Mountain Jointure team. Norm Coyle, Gene Beard, and Roy Shellhammer shared in the scoring honors.

POTTSVILLE 26 MAHANOY AREA 7

Pottsville unleashed a sensational second-period aerial attack to pave the way for a 26-7 "come-from-behind" victory over Mahanoy Area. Mike Lazarchick, Corky Spehrley, Norm Coyle, and Jim Strausser shared scoring honors.

POTTSVILLE 31 TAMAQUA 0

Pottsville High School combined a patent ground offense with a strong aerial attack to romp over Tamaqua. The Crimson Tide had been favored, but the margin of victory was surprising. The result established the Crimson as a strong contender for Southern Division honors. Corky Spehrley, Jim Strausser, Dave Dallago, and Norm Coyle scored the TD's.

POTTSVILLE 14 SUNBURY 7

The Crimson won its fourth victory in a row to beat a stubborn undefeated Sunbury team. The victory put undefeated Pottsville into a tie for first place with Hazleton. Pottsville's Jim Strausser and Mike Lazarchick went across the double stripe for P. H. S. Al Norkus, George Garrett, and John Wargo were outstanding on defense.

POTTSVILLE 27 SHAMOKIN 7

Pottsville overpowered Shamokin for its fifth win in a row. P. H. S.'s alert defense and hard-driving offense paved the way for a 27-7 victory. Touchdowns by Ed Weisacosky, Jim Strausser, and Norm Coyle featured the game.

POTTSVILLE 32 LEBANON 13

Pottsville won its sixth straight victory and achieved a winning season margin at Lebanon. Jim Strausser's eighty-yard first play touchdown run was the highlight of the evening. Ed Weisacosky, Mike Lazarchick, and Norm Coyle also crossed into the end zone for TD's. Dave Dallago, George Garrett, and Mike LaSelva were strong defensive tacklers.

POTTSVILLE 40 MOUNT CARMEL 6

Pottsville went all out to best Mount Carmel 40 to 6, to make P. H. S.'s record 7 wins and no losses. Good passing, determination, and hard blocking put Pottsville out in front from the beginning to the end of the game. George Garrett, Al Norkus, John Wargo, and Bill Stephenson were big defensive tacklers. Dave Dallago and Ed Weisacosky accounted for 24 points with Mike Lazarchick and Gene Beard adding the final 12 points.

POTTSVILLE 25 BERWICK 0

All stops were pulled out as Pottsville stomped Berwick 25-0. Speed and an alert defense were the big factors that kept Pottsville in the winning column of 8 and 0. Mike Lazarchick's 92-yard run was the highlight of the game. Ed Weisacosky, Jim Strausser, Gene Beard, and Mike Lazarchick each scored TD's. George Garrett added the P. A. T.

POTTSVILLE 19 HAZLETON 26

"DISASTER!" Mighty P. H. S. was dumped from the unbeaten ranks by running into a big wall at Hazleton. The loss was the first in nine games. Pottsville was unable to stop the powerful ground game of the Mountaineers after a tremendous comeback. Dave Dallago's T.D. in the opening seconds stunned the Mountaineers temporarily. His and Jim Strausser's two TD's accounted for 19 points. Heach Coach Bill Flynn was not present at this game because of illness.

POTTSVILLE 7 ALLENTOWN 33

Pottsville went down to defeat for the second time this season. But not without a fight. Pottsville's offense showed much improvement against the big Allentown eleven. Blocking also improved as John Wargo, Al Norkus, and Ed Weisacosky showed determination all through the game. Coach Flynn was present at this game, after which he returned to the hospital.

POTTSVILLE 13 READING 7

The Crimson Tide defeated Reading in a never-to-be-forgotten Thanksgiving Day classic. P. H. S.'s stubborn defense displayed the best showing of alertness and hard blocking since the season began. It was a second half T. D. by Reading that got P. H. S. in a fighting mood. And fight they did, because it took Mike Lazarchick only a couple of minutes in the fourth period to add the T. D. punch. Al Norkus, George Garrett, John Wargo, Tom Bettis, and John Coleman were big forewalls in the P. H. S. defense. The enthusiasm and joy of P. H. S. players and fans alike knew no bounds as they carried Coach Flynn off the field at game's end.

1961-1962 VARSITY SEASON

With seven victories in its 14 East Penn League games included in its over-all record of 15 wins against 7 defeats, Pottsville High enjoyed its first winning basketball season since 1956-'57. In his second season, Coach "Larry" Haberle had the Crimson Tide finishing in a two-way third-place tie in the first half league race, 4-3, and another two-way fifth-place tie, 3-4, in the second half. The best previous league record was also in the 1956-'57 campaign, when there was an even split in the ten-game schedule. Before its initial loss to Dieruff, the Crimson Tide ran up a string of nine successive victories, the longest in the school's history. Single wins were posted over Tamaqua, newest entry to the East Penn League; Dieruff, Allentown Central Catholic, and Wm. Allen, while Hazleton was defeated in two games.

POTTSVILLE TRACK AND FIELD TEAM — 1961

The 1961 Pottsville High Track and Field Team finished in the runner-up spot, second place, in the Southern Conference Track and Field Championship and in fifth place in Class A, District Eleven Track and Field Championship. Sixteen Class A teams competed in District Eleven.

The season was featured by individual performance and record breaking in two of the field events, the discus throw and the pole vault. Mike Stefonick '61 established a new all-time Pottsville High record when he threw the discus 152 feet, 5 inches, to win the event in the Southern Conference. This is also a Pottsville High School stadium record. Stefonick also broke the District Eleven P. I. A. A. discus record which had stood since 1938.

The pole vaulting trio of Tom Cooper, Eugene Howells, and Dick Richter were almost universally successful in their event during the season. Cooper broke the Triangular Meet record and the Southern Conference pole vault records. In the Southern Conference Championships, Cooper vaulted 11 feet, 9 inches, to narrowly miss the school record. Head coach of track is Carlton R. Sterner. Field coach is Frank Luchnick.

Other high scorers on the team included: Jim Reddington, junior, and Ronald Morris, freshman. Reddington and Morris will captain the 1962 team. The Cross Country coach is Carlton R. Sterner.

FOOTBALL PROGRAM SALESGIRLS

The Football Program Sales girls are those enthusiastic purveyors of Pottsville High's official illustrated Lucky Number Football Program at all home games for the Crimson and White in Veterans' Memorial Stadium. "You can't follow the game without a program," truly refers to these aproned girls, who—rain, shine, snow, or what-have-you—give Pottsville High's patrons the look of their choice.

Chairman of the group in 1961 was Darlene Wagner.

Mr. Carlton R. Sterner is the adviser and director of the Football Program.

In their efforts to motivate enthusiasm during the 1961 - 1962 season, the Pottsville High School Cheerleaders conducted colorful pep rallies in the auditorium and gymnasium. With the cooperative assistance of the student body, they promoted "Esprit de corps" on Red and White Days.

In order to be self-supporting, this aggressive group sponsored victory dances after each home football game.

Senior varsity members are awarded a blazer jacket and a letter. All varsity members receive necklace megaphones.

Hats off to this fetching faction of femininity, who never fail to facilitate the fiery fervor of their flock who follow the feats of P. H. S.'s finest fellows.

CLASS HISTORY

Once upon a time, in the year 1958, 293 backward, little dwarves passed through the portals of a large castle on a hill. Bewildered and terrified by the sight of many tremendous giants looming over them, the little people selected Bob Schuettler, George Garrett, Theresa Gentile, and Linda Smith as their leaders. Unable to take much part in the castle activities because of their inferior status, the little dwarves remained obscure. However, not to be completely outdone, Charlie Begansky and Judy Stephenson were chosen to compete against the giants in the royal dance contest.

Due to circumstances beyond their control, the little dwarves were forced to remain in the castle for another year. This year, though still looked down upon, our little group became braver and chose blue and white for their colors of distinction. Learning new languages seemed to become "the thing," and replaced such activities as climbing beanstalks, spinning gold, etc. Once again, Charlie Begansky and Judy Stephenson were chosen as best dancers and really rocked the royal ball with quite a merry jig!

The leaders of our brave little crew were: "Grumpy" Garrett, "Happy" Hunter, "Smiley" Gentile, and "Sneezy" Hummel.

Another year arrived and the little group, now in their third year (with a few exceptions), was beginning to enjoy their stay in the castle. Many of the wee dwarves had grown a bit and had become quite well known. Walking (???) through the giant halls proved to be a very popular pastime, and most of our little ones had successfully mastered the art of conversing with the giants (who suddenly did not appear so giant!). Hats and pennants were ordered, and the group was represented in the dance contest by Elwood Moore and Peggy Glenn. The leaders for this hectic year were: "Grumpy" Garrett, "Sleepy" Mortimer, "Smiley" Gentile, and "Dopey" Lazarchick.

Finally, the members of this happy band were not dwarves any more! They were now the giants and could loom menacingly over new little dwarves. One of the crew, Mary Jo Purcell, had gone across the sea to Austria, but they had also been joined by Mustafa Erguney, who had come all the way from Turkey to be a member of the group. Most of the giants were trying desperately to learn to write well, and a few succeeded (much to the chagrin of one Miss Foley!!). The library seemed to become a smashing success as a hideaway (or excuse??), but, of course, parties (usually unplanned), Mickey's, and the Globe remained the favorites. A class song was written by Paul Harris, to the tune of "Aura Lee," and 23 members of the annual staff put out the best yearbook ever sold in the castle. Competent leaders for this year were: George Garrett, Jim Strausser, Barbara Mortimer, and Mike Lazarchick. All too soon, the group's wonderful year as giants drew to a close, and the final assembly brought a tear to many an eye.

As members of this wonderful group of dwarves, turned giants, we would like to express our sincere thanks for the guidance and patience, shown to us by the faculty, which enabled us to grow as we did. And, to our advisers, Miss Sarah Alter and Mr. Benjamin Schnerring, we extend a special word of appreciation, for our successful four years in P. H. S. could not have been possible without them.

And so, as we pass, for the last time, through the portals of our "castle on the hill," we are filled not only with sorrow, but also with pride, for

"Deep in our hearts thy spirit lies,
Burning eternally,
Firm are the friendships, strong are the ties
Binding us fast to thee."

—LINDA SMITH.

Tune: Aura Lee — Lyrics by Paul Harris

When our high school days are through, When we leave Old High.
When we leave thy por-tals bold and friends who were so kind.

BEHIND the SCENES

SENIOR PLAY

With Joe crawling around under tables and the whole group clustering around the stage to watch the big "love scene" every night, one might have thought he was entering an institution rather than King Arthur's court. The cast was actually a heterogeneous crew until they finally got down to business. The lines were learned, acting ability(?) was developed, and costumes were donned long enough to produce "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," one play Miss Foley thought would never reach the footlights. But the cast surprised her and it turned out to be one of the best senior plays in years.
